KING TO FORM GOVERNMENT IMMEDIATELY

BIG LIBERAL MAJORITY READY TO MEET HOUSE IN NOVEMBER

B.C. ONLY TORY REFUGE IN ALL WESTERN CANADA ELECTION RESULTS SHOW

Victoria and Island Constituencies Pile Up Majorities for Conservatives, But Neill Holds Comox-Alberni; Two Mainland Seats Slip From Liberals, Leaving Only Hon. J. H. King Safe

British Columbia, alone of all Canada west of the Great Lakes, failed to join in the great Liberal sweep.

Of the fourteen seats in this province, the Conservatives came out of the election with eleven, perhaps twelve, leaving Hon. J. H. King in Kootenay East as the only straight Liberal. General A. D. McRae, former Provincial Third Party leader, by beating G. G. McGeer in North Vancouver gained for the Conservatives that seat, which was held in the last House by Dugald Donaghy, Liberal.

A. W. Neill, Independent, was returned by a big majority over the Conservative and Farmer-Laborite candidates in Comox-Alberni.

The result in the fourteenth British Columbia seat, Skeena, is still in doubt with J. C. Brady the Conservative, so far showing a lead of 400 votes. Twenty polls to come, over Alfred Stork, Liberal, and former member. If this seat goes Conservative it will be another gain from the Liberals, giving the Conservative Party twelve from B.C.

DR. TOLMIE INCREASED LEAD
In Victoria, from the first returns from the polling booths, there was no doubt that Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative, had been re-elected over Carey Martin, Liberal. When the final results came in, it was found that although there were 700 fewer votes cast in the city than last year, Dr. Tolmie had increased his lead over the Liberal by nearly 500 votes as compared with 1925, when the figures were: Tolmie, 6,924; Ivel, Liberal, 4,482.

DICKIE ALSO GAINS
The biggest proportionate majorities in the Province were those which C. H. Dickie, Conservative, gained in the Nanaimo riding over C. H. O'Halloran, Liberal. But even so, that Mr. O'Halloran polled more votes yesterday than the Liberal candidate, Tom Booth, did last year.

Latest returns this afternoon indicate that 15,007 votes were polled yesterday, and that Mr. Dickie received 9,526 and Mr. O'Halloran 5,071. In the three-cornered contest of 1925 there was 13,242 votes cast; distributed as follows: Dickie 7,159, Booth 4,627, Grievies, Labor, 1,576.

NEILL STRONG IN COMOX
There are still twenty polls to be heard from in Comox-Alberni, with results so far indicating that A. W. Neill, Independent, will be returned by a majority. Neill had a narrow lead over the Conservative, J. E. Armistead, Farmer-Labor, proved to be not a factor in the election, failing to draw a single vote in more than twenty of the polling districts.

ANOTHER HUNTER HIT BY MARKSMAN

Spent Bullet, However, Failed to Cause Serious Injury

Struck by spent bullets of a shotgun-shell, fired through the brush at a bird, Leonard Mannix had a narrow escape from serious injury at Union Bay on Saturday. He had gone into the brush country in quest of game when a hunter's gun roared out some considerable distance from him, and was immediately followed by a scattering of bird shot about his head and body.

Mannix told Provincial Police Corporal Mathews at Courtenay that he felt a sharp pain in his hand and leg to see what had caused it. There was no mark or bruise of any sort. The pain had been slight, although its suddenness surprised the hunter and the scattering of the bullets about him in the foliage caused him some alarm.

Mannix was not hurt, but he hurriedly left the vicinity in which the bullets were flying. Provincial Police say his escape was fortunate, for within a closer range of the shotgun he would undoubtedly have been seriously wounded.

Embargo on Arms Affects Nicaragua

Paul Smith's N.Y., Sept. 15.—President Coolidge to-day issued a proclamation placing an embargo on the shipment of arms to Nicaragua.

The step was taken by the chief executive in response to a recommendation made by the State Department in view of local disturbances in the Central American country.

RE-ELECTED TO COMMONS SEAT

Hon. J. A. Robb, who as Minister of Finance was one of Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King's colleagues in the late Liberal Government of Canada, was re-elected as follows: Dickie 7,159, Booth 4,627, Grievies, Labor, 1,576.

OPPOSES TWO-YEAR TERM FOR MAYORS

Speaker Advises Realtors to Fight Suggested Legislation

Opposing the steps which have been taken by the city council to secure a two-year term for the mayor of the city instead of the one-year term as at present, R. H. B. Ker advised the Real Estate Board at their weekly luncheon to-day that a determined effort should be made to stop this action. At least the people of the city should voice opinion in the matter, he stated.

There was no reason for a two-year term, he argued. A man who had conducted the business of the city properly and gained the confidence of the people would be re-elected at the end of his one-year term, he said. If he was elected for two years, however, and was incompetent, he could not be put out of office at the end of the first year, and considerable damage might be done to the city.

Alderman Cuthbert Holmes endorsed Mr. Ker's statements, saying that the matter should certainly be referred to the people before being passed on to the legislature.

After much discussion, Mr. Ker gave notice that at the meeting of the board in two weeks' time he would bring up a motion regarding action on the matter, giving the members of the board time to dwell upon it.

LONE OCCUPANT FOUND DEAD IN MOUNTAIN HUT

Hunters Discover Body of Elderly Man in Malahat Cabin

Gun Gripped in Hand Points to Story of Tragedy

The finding of the body of Alfred Kidman, fifty years old, in his cabin near the junction of the Malahat Drive and the Shawigan Lake Cut-off Road early this morning by a party of hunters who knew the man and who were calling on him, indicates that the lonely dweller of the woods took his own life some time last night, according to reports from Provincial Police headquarters here.

Gripping a gun in his hand with which he had blown out his brains, apparently, the body of Kidman greeted his friends when they pushed through the door of his cabin early this morning.

According to Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, who visited the scene of the tragedy, the case had every appearance of a suicide. Kidman, who had been a worker on the roads of the Island for the past thirty years, had been ailing for some time past, Dr. Hart said. He was last seen about 5 o'clock last night, and appeared to be in good spirits.

Provincial police headquarters first heard of the report of the apparent suicide at an early hour this morning. It was only a few minutes after it had reached here that Constables W. J. Thompson and C. C. Jacklin left for the scene. It was a horrible sight which greeted them.

Prone on his back, lying between his blankets which were stained with his own blood, a .32 calibre revolver clutched in one hand, the officers found Kidman. On his crude dressing table were two ready-rolled cigarettes and his watch was there as well, gone, and the lamp was lit.

HEARD GUN
At about 8 o'clock last night when in the vicinity of the Kidman cabin heard a report which they took to be a hunter "putting up." They paid it little heed. But this may have been the shot which killed Kidman.

It was not until a party of three hunters, B. H. Wilson, W. Thom and W. Mitchell stumbled through the dense brush and into the cabin to speak to their old friend that the tragedy was discovered.

DEATH INSTANTANEOUS
The indications were that Kidman died instantaneously. His hand, gripping the revolver, lay along his side and he was still upon his back, with a gaping wound in his head.

Provincial Police officers investigating the case to-day. As far as could be gathered Kidman had had no trouble of any sort to upset his peace of mind, with the exception of the poor health which has been dogging him for some days.

The body was brought to the city this afternoon and reposes at the Sands Funeral Parlors. As far as can be ascertained Kidman had no relatives in this city.

FATE OF CREW IN ATLANTIC MYSTERY

No Trace of Thirty-two Men of Ss. Loyal Citizen Since S.O.S. Calls Sent

New York, Sept. 15.—The fate of the thirty-two members of the crew of the British freighter Loyal Citizen, which broadcast distress calls yesterday, continued a mystery to-day. The Independent Wireless Telegraph Company reported that during the night the French steamship Denica and the British steamship Princess May had reported passing a consigned lifeboat in the vicinity where the Loyal Citizen was last reported—about 150 miles southwest of Bermuda. No trace of the ship or men was found, however.

Robert Forke Says Outcome of Polling Adds Strength to Country

Sir H. Drayton Congratulates Liberal Party on Return to Power

Brandon, Sept. 15.—"The Federal election results are very satisfactory," declared Robert Forke, former Progressive leader, when interviewed here to-day.

Mr. Forke, who retained his seat in both the Liberal and Progressive parties, added the results were particularly gratifying both from a Federal and provincial viewpoint.

The former Progressive leader had no comment to make when asked concerning rumors from Ottawa that he might enter the Cabinet of Right Hon. Mackenzie King.

STATEMENT BY DRAYTON

Toronto, Sept. 15.—"I congratulate the King Party on its return to power," said Sir Henry Drayton, ex-M.P. for West York and acting Premier at Ottawa during the absence of Mr. Meighen. "May they, this time, give something worth while for Canada."

Mr. Meighen's defeat, he said, was particularly regrettable. His courage in sticking to his first conviction had been characteristic, though not appreciated.

Quebec had remained solid, he said, and this again was a regrettable feature. "He thought the vote did not record the thoughts of Quebec on the real economic and financial questions before the country."

EIGHT KILLED IN TUNNEL EXPLOSION

Men Caught by Blast While at Work Under River at Kansas City

Kansas City, Sept. 15.—An explosion early to-day in a water tunnel being constructed under the Missouri River here is believed to have resulted in the deaths of eight workmen who were in the tunnel at the time.

Charles S. Foreman, engineer in charge of the construction, penetrated a thousand feet back from the mouth of the tunnel, through debris and smoke, and reported he could hear no sounds from the point of the explosion.

The explosion is believed to have occurred at a point in the tunnel near the Clay County bank of the Missouri River, as the excavation had reached that far last night.

The crew of eight men went to work last night. They had two cases of dynamite, both of which are believed to have exploded.

CANADA'S YOUNGEST M.P. NOT YET 24

Latest Returns Give Liberals 118 Members, With Sufficient Support From Other Groups to Provide Heavy Majorities in All Divisions; Conservatives Retain Only Ninety Seats, Following Break in Ontario, Maritimes and Manitoba; New Premier Expected to Attend Imperial Conference in October and Call Parliament Together Late in November

Assured of a stable and dominant majority in the next House of Commons as a result of yesterday's general election, the Liberal Party is expected to return to office in Ottawa within a few days.

Reports from the national capital received here this afternoon indicated Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, "would be called upon to form a Government almost immediately and would proceed to London on October 19 to represent Canada at the forthcoming Imperial Conference. The new King Government is expected to meet Parliament at a session late in November."

STATEMENTS EXPECTED

While neither Mr. King nor Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister, had issued a statement on the situation up to a late hour this afternoon, it was indicated in Ottawa they would declare their intentions within the next few hours. Mr. Meighen, it is understood, will call together his Cabinet immediately and prepare to lay his resignation before Baron Byng, Governor-General.

While Mr. King did not appear at his office in Ottawa this morning to receive the thousands of messages of congratulation which had poured in during the night, speculation about his probable course of action was general among his supporters. The belief that he would form a definite union with the Liberal-Progressive group by taking some of its members into his Cabinet was given wide credence, and the name of Robert Forke, former Progressive leader, was given prominence in this connection. Mr. King's secretaries intimated he would issue a message to the Canadian people before the end of the day.

SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY

Meanwhile latest returns from all parts of Canada showed the Liberal Party would be able to count on a heavy majority in Parliament. With two seats still doubtful, the Liberal Party holds 118 seats in a House of 245. The Conservative strength has been cut to 90 members, while the rest of the House is made up of 8 Progressives, 11 Liberal-Progressives, 11 United Farmer members, 3 Labor men and 2 Independents.

To secure a majority of one over all other groups in the House Mr. King would need 124 members. The Liberal Party would rise to 120, provided Skeena and Kindersley should go Liberal. At the moment Skeena appears to be going Conservative and Kindersley Progressive.

The Liberal Party, however, can count on the support of nearly all the members of the House except the straight Conservatives, giving it majorities ranging up to more than fifty members.

BIG MAJORITY CERTAIN

If the Liberals should receive only the support of the Liberal-Progressives and the Progressives they would have 137 votes, or a majority of 26 after the election of a Speaker, without considering the 11 United Farmer members, the three Labor members and two Independents, who have always supported the Liberal policies. It is thus certain the Liberal administration will have a majority sufficient to produce stable government during its entire term of office.

The Liberal strength came from all parts of the country except British Columbia and Nova Scotia. After increasing its hold in the Maritimes slightly, late returns show the Liberal Party held all but six of the Quebec seats and captured twenty-five seats in the Conservative stronghold of Ontario, where the fate of the Meighen Government was definitely sealed. The Liberals also have made handsome gains in Manitoba and in Saskatchewan, while the United Farmers, favorable to Liberal policies, dominated Alberta. In British Columbia, the Liberal Party showed its only marked decline of strength, having lost two seats, counting Skeena, where full returns have not been compiled.

HOUSE COMPLEXION CHANGED
These changes have completely altered the complexion of the new House of Commons. At dissolution the House included 102 Liberals, 115 Conservatives, 23 Progressives, 2 Labor members and two Independents.

The new House will include 118 Liberals, 90 Conservatives, 7 Progressives, 3 United Farmers, three Labor men and two Independents. With two seats still doubtful, the Conservatives stand to gain one, Skeena, and the Progressives one, Kindersley.

The Liberals have thus gained twenty-two from the Conservative and one from the Progressives. The Liberal-Progressives have gained two from the Conservatives, while

On October 19 Mr. King is due in London for the Imperial Conference. Some months ago the Canadian Government accepted an invitation to the conference, but recent developments have left the situation much in the air. Important questions are likely to arise at the Empire gathering and there is a feeling the Prime Minister should be there in person. At the same time it is questioned whether he will be able to form his Government and transact necessary public business in the interval. In all probability, Parliament will be summoned to meet in November.

TORIES GAIN ONE IN N.S.

Liberal gains started with slight increases in the Party's Maritime strength. Earliest returns received from the East showed the Maritime Provinces were standing pat with the Conservative Party in most ridings while Liberals managed to break the solid Tory phalanx of the 12th election at a few vital points.

In Nova Scotia Halifax, as had been anticipated, returned two Conservatives, one of them being Hon. W. A. Black, Minister of Railways in the Meighen Government, but his majority of last fall was seriously reduced.

The Conservatives gained a Nova Scotia seat in Queens-Lunenburg, where William Duff, formerly Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons, went down to defeat before W. G. Ernst, Conservative. The Liberals (Continued on Page 12)

But Only Women Can Make Homes

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
In a small block of space it is well nigh impossible to discuss the question of marriage and career. Yet it seems to be the greatest problem facing unmarried girls and young married women to-day, and is likely to be the problem that will face them for some years to come.

higher education that takes years of time and thousands of dollars of preparation, and then demands an opportunity to flower in one form or another—art, business or a profession.

Who can decide? When a girl is through with high school, preparatory school and college, she is of an age to marry. That is the time she must make her decision. Even if she does not go through college but has taken up a business life instead, she is usually just at the point of success and recognition when marrying time comes along.

The girls seem to be inclined to settle the matter with a wave of the hand. "We'll do both," they say. "We will go on with our work, our husbands can go on with theirs. Marriage is coming to that anyway, and it takes more than the average man can make to keep up a home."

Some years ago I was inclined to agree more or less. But I have seen many failures—and the half-baked business-housewife cannot be called a great success. True, there are some unusual women who are strong enough physically and mentally to carry a double responsibility. I have seen that, too. But as it is not normal, it is not usual. Few women can make a real home if their hearts are wrapped up in some other work. And if women fall down on the home question, there won't be homes—or good homes at least. The men won't make them. They don't know how. It is largely a question of money. It takes so much to live! And women want to work to help. But if there are women worrying and facing this problem, why not let nature have a say? You can't beat nature. Nature says woman and home—be it ever so humble!

WOMEN EJECTED FROM CHURCH FOR SKIMPY DRESSES

Allene Watches Censors at Work at Historic St. Mark's in Venice

Men Even Get Into Trouble For Not Wearing Coats on Hot Days

By ALLENE SUMNER
Venice, Italy, Sept. 15.—One of the greatest outdoor sports of the woman tourist is to take a post before one of the vast French or Italian cathedrals and watch the members of her own sex ejected from the church, or refused entrance, because of too short a sleeve or too bare a neck, or too short a skirt.

The pastime may not be especially saintly, but few of "us travelers" can resist watching the utter blank bewilderment of a school-ma'am from Kalamazoo, who has ever been a leader of the young, and a light in the community, forcibly restrained from entering St. Mark's because the sleeve of her "best taffeta" descends only a fraction of an inch below the elbow, rather than to the wrist.

Remonstrance, threats, entreaties, avail naught.

Uniformed gendarmes, policemen of the church, stand in almost solid phalanxes before St. Mark's, Santa Croce of Florence, Milan Cathedral, and even before the smaller churches scrutinizing each female who advances. The gendarmes carry weapons of force, huge staffs to be used, if necessary.

Sometimes a conference is held as to the eligibility for entrance of "a signorina." There seems no set rule as to so many permissible inches of bare throat or arms. One satisfies the sense of fitness of the particular policeman who scrutinizes one, or one does not.

I have seen women with sleeves below their elbows refused cathedral admission, and the next moment have seen girls with sleeves above the elbow permitted entrance.

Sometimes the vigilant eye is averted as a bare-throated damsel enters. But what a furore when she emerges and they see what has happened!

Some of the smaller churches are more lenient and are ready with a supply of coarse crash toweling, a la dresser scarves, which are doled out to the erring sister to drape over her bare arms.

Bare arms seem the prime offense. Some cathedrals have different demands for the foreigner and home women. They demand longer skirts for the former but permit bare arms which must be covered by their own women.

The "Scala Santa" or "Sacred Stairway" at Rome, for instance, up whose long flight of steps the devout crawl step by step on their knees, for the promise of a lessened stay in purgatory, however, cautions all women to carefully pull down their skirts as they crawl on bruised and sore knees from step to step. Tiny little girls and shaking white-haired women clutch fearfully at their skirts as they toil upward.

Some of the church's attitude toward dress, overflows into secular life.

In Florence, we saw two sleek, well-groomed men in icecream trousers and striped silk sport shirts ejected from a street car for wearing no coats.

The men, Germans, could not understand the commotion of the motorman, conductor, and a train crew, recruited from another car until the rabble of perspiring, gray-coated natives coiled at their own coats, pointing in shame at the coatless two.

One is fined in the Italian trains for putting shoes on seats, with the result that a compartment for eight is thronged on a hot day with about six pairs of shoeless feet! Happy he who reads with no imagination.

An honeymoon couple were fined twenty lire for sitting in our compartment with shoes perched on the edge of the opposite bench! The conductor grabbed their passports, and would not return them until the sum, and more, was paid!

So you who may travel abroad, bring plenty of scarves with you to wear in churches with your short-sleeved dresses, and travel with shoes off and not on!

OVERSEAS UPSETTING COUNTY CRICKET

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times

London, Sept. 15.—The announcement that A. J. Richardson, a member of the present Australian team, intends to return to this country after the tour and qualify for Lancashire, raises the question of the desirability of players from the Dominions coming over to take part in county cricket.

At present a player must reside two years in a county, and in the case of a player from overseas he may not represent his country without losing his qualification.

If Richardson carries out his intention, he will be closely following the example of MacDonald, whose fast bowling was an important factor in the success of the Australian touring team of 1921. MacDonald spent two profitable years in the Lancashire League before becoming qualified, and this season may assist the County Palatine to secure the championship.

The policy of inviting brilliant cricketers from overseas to qualify for Lancashire is not regarded with favor even by a considerable section of the county's own members who have a lively anticipation of Yorkshire giving, and at the last annual meeting a proposal that in future no one should represent Lancashire who was not a Lancastrian born received a large measure of support. One may ask what satisfaction it can be to Lancashire if in one of the "Wars of the Roses" they gain a victory owing to colonial intervention. Yorkshire, Nottinghamshire and Kent insist on the birth qualification, but Lancashire, in the past, has enlisted the service of Australians in L. O. S. Poldevin and Kermode; Middlesex, the greatest sinner of all, owed its revival to A. E. Trotter and Frank Tarant, while Surrey for a time enjoyed the assistance of that brilliant but unsteady batsman, Alan Marshall.

No one would wish to exclude from first-class cricket a player who makes England his bonafide place of residence, as did Spofforth over here, and J. N. Crawford lived for a time in Australia, but when the change is made merely for pecuniary reasons it is another matter, and it might be as well to consider the possibility of extending the qualification period.

DON'S CROWD TO-DAY!
A sad commentary on the beauty of to-day's woman is that crowds do not block streets to see any of them pass. Justine Johnson, recognized as one of our foremost beauties, even if not of the sort that crowds gather for to see, gives a few pointers. "I use scented oil in my bath," writes she. "It makes a film on the bath water which clings to the body, making it soft and smooth. Just before my shampoo every week, I rub olive oil into my scalp. I clean my face with a very greasy cold cream. I have discovered an eye lotion which may be used four or five times a day to freshen the eyes. I buy ten cents worth of camomile flowers and put them in boiling water and apply this lotion. My eyes whenever they feel tired."

Careless and Reckless Pay Court's Fines

"Fined $5!" That terse little two-word sentence was spoken just eleven times, punctuated by some heavier ones, when Magistrate Jay took a session of the Equimalt police court yesterday afternoon and the municipal coffers took just $30 from offending motorists and one unfortunate cyclist. The Equimalt police recently started a campaign against owners who failed to keep rear lights burning during the hours of darkness, and there were six of them brought before the magistrate and fined yesterday. A seventh was dismissed, as he showed good excuses.

Two automobile owners paid fines of $5 for leaving their cars parked in restricted areas on Esquimalt Road. Magistrate Jay, who had been imposing fines of $1 up to the that time, decided yesterday that the public had had sufficient warning and lifted the penalty to $5.

R. M. Parmer was fined $35 with an option of spending ten days in prison, for driving to the common danger. He was fined an additional $5 for failing to keep a rear light burning.

G. D. Tyson was similarly charged and was sentenced to pay $15 with a prison option, and another $5 for failing to have his driver's license on his person.

J. M. COX DENOUNCES U.S. DEBT PLANS

Says Collection of War Sums Under Present System Mistake

New York, Sept. 15.—Former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic candidate for president in 1920 on the League of Nations platform, issued a statement last night following his return from abroad, bitterly attacking the United States foreign policy, especially concerning the collection of war debts.

He asserted this country has "no foreign policy unless the collection of war debts, which we are hardheartedly conducting can be regarded as its expression."

"Children yet unborn will be old men," Mr. Cox said, "before we have exacted our last pound of flesh. Our progeny will reap the harvest of our blunders. We can corner the gold of the earth, but it will plague us in time."

Citizen of U.S. Is Prisoner of Mexican Bandits

Mexico City, Sept. 15.—The United States citizen, well-known for Jacob Rosenthal, well-known Long Island, has proved futile. He was kidnapped by Mexican bandits while returning to Mexico City by automobile from Cuernavaca. The others of the party, Jack Zahler, a prominent American resident of Mexico City, his wife and Joseph Ruff, Mr. Rosenthal's son-in-law, were robbed at the time, but permitted to continue their journey. Zahler and Ruff, with a picked squad of Mexican soldiers, started out Monday to trace the bandits, but returned here after vainly plunging into the dense woods near Huixtla, where the outrage was carried out, and spending hours in a fruitless search for the missing man and his captors.

NEW FRENCH-GERMAN AGREEMENT DESIRED

Geneva, Sept. 15.—M. Briand, French Foreign Minister, and Dr. Gustav Stresemann, German Foreign Secretary, having exchanged views on the main points at variance between their respective countries, are now getting down to "real business talk."

M. Briand made this statement to newspapermen. The Foreign Minister indicated France was inclined to interpret the clauses of the Versailles treaty liberally.

"The Franco-German agreements, based upon the treaty and the Locarno pact," said M. Briand, "admit of questions arising from the treaty being interpreted in a much more pacific spirit. It is much easier to treat with the German Foreign Minister in this way than by ordinary diplomatic exchanges through the chancelleries of Wilhelmstrasse and the Quai d'Orsay."

M. Briand added he would not set a date for his return to Paris until the necessary ground work for a Franco-German understanding had been laid down.

Cheminus

Cheminus, Sept. 15.—The book tea organized by Mrs. Adams and Miss McInnes and which was held in the reading room of the Recreation Hall was a great success. There was a good attendance. Mrs. E. M. Cook and Mrs. L. G. Robinson tied on the number of titles of books guessed. In the cut Mrs. E. M. Cook was the winner. A delicious tea was served. The table decorations being bowls of magnificent dahlias.

Amongst those who assisted at the tea were Mrs. J. C. Adam, Mrs. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. L. A. McLaughlin, Mrs. William Allister, Mrs. N. F. Lang, and Mrs. V. G. Pritchard. Mrs. Douglas Ross and Miss G. McInnes arranged for the competition. The school library will benefit by fifty-six books and $4 in cash.

MANY MESSAGES TO LIBERAL CHIEF

Mackenzie King in Ottawa Last Night When Election Returns Came

Speculation as to Calling of Fall Session of Parliament

Ottawa, Sept. 15 (Canadian Press)—In his office in the Centre Block of the Parliament Building, Right Hon. Mackenzie King last night received the election returns from a special wire. It was with quiet satisfaction Mr. King and a small group of personal friends learned of the re-election of the Liberal cause. With the Liberal leader were Hon. Vincent Massey, Senator Haydon, Percy Parker of Toronto and Colonel A. T. Thompson of Ottawa.

Mr. King's desk was covered with maps and charts, on which the returns were marked as they came in and as the evening progressed telegrams from candidates and supporters began to pile up on the desk. Between telephone calls from all parts of the country, the dispatching of wires to Liberal candidates and the compilation of results, Mr. King was constantly busy until nearly 4 o'clock this morning.

Future discussed. Lobby gossip in the corridors of Parliament around Mr. King's office centred about the "morrow." What next? What about the Imperial Conference? Would there be a late Fall session? The general opinion seemed to be that any new government would be constructed as rapidly as possible and that Mr. King probably would go to the conference in London. Throughout the campaign it had been understood in Liberal circles there would be a session of the new Parliament in November if the party was returned. A late Fall session would mean a long adjournment for Christmas and an endeavor to conclude the first session of the Parliament by Easter of 1927.

Statement deferred. Mr. King declined last night to make any statement for publication. "I prefer to defer any statement until to-morrow," he said.

DEMOCRATS OF IOWA MEET

Jefferson City, Iowa, Sept. 15.—United States Senator James Reed, in his keynote speech before the democratic state convention here yesterday assailed with all his old-time oratory four things he believes affect the welfare of the people of the nation. He cited the tendency towards centralization of power in government, the effect of the tariff on distressed farmers, the foreign debt problem and Federal methods of revenue taxation.

By no direct word did he refer to the prohibition issue, but that question was uppermost in the minds of his hearers as he spoke at length on the tendency to rob the individual of his right to live.

He regulated his own morals and personal conduct.

MAN FASTED AND LOST LIFE

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 15.—After fasting forty-two days in an effort to regain his health, William Friebe, sixty-five, died here yesterday. Friebe was a sufferer from indigestion.

NINE CANDIDATES LOST THEIR DEPOSITS

Toronto, Sept. 15.—Nine candidates in the Toronto and York districts lost their deposits in the Federal election yesterday, according to returns compiled.

The Liberal candidates in the Toronto and York who lost their deposits were: Shipman, in Toronto South; Murdoch, in Toronto High Park; Tipping, in Parkdale; Hunter in West York; Boyd, in Toronto Northwest; For, Walker, in Toronto Scarborough, and Miss Kathleen Bennett, in Toronto East. Both Labor candidates—Simpson in Toronto Northwest and Macdonald in West York—also lost their deposits.

Each of the candidates who lost his deposit will forfeit $200 to the Federal Government.

IRISH FREE STATE WANTS LEAGUE SEAT

Geneva, Sept. 15.—The Irish delegation to the League of Nations Assembly definitely announced last night that the Irish Free State would be a candidate for a non-permanent seat in the League Council.

It is believed the Free State will be supported by all the Dominions of the Empire.

SEATTLE EX-POLICEMAN IS FACING A CHARGE

Seattle, Sept. 15.—Motorcycle Patrolman H. B. Newell of the Seattle police department was dismissed last night by Chief W. H. Searing. Newell was held in the city jail as a suspect in recent Seattle robberies. Police meanwhile sought a man they declared was criminally associated with the patrolman. Until the second suspect should be found, police said, the information against Newell would not be revealed.

LIVESTOCK PRIZE

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—King of the Fairies, champion bull of the United States, was dethroned yesterday at the International Livestock Show at the Sesqui-Centennial Stadium here. The former champion, bred by the Prince of Wales, and owned by the Baker Shorthorn Farms, Hickman Mills, Mo., lost to Sir Star Laura Segis owned by the Minnesota Holstein Company. Both bulls are Holsteins.

MUSSOLINI SAYS STAR PROTECTS HIM

Italian Premier Tells Reporter Assassination Not to be His Fate

Rome, Sept. 15.—Premier Mussolini believes the star of his destiny protects him from assassins and that he will die a natural death.

That is what he told Robert H. (Bob) Davis of the New York Sun, who was received by the Premier after the attempt on his life last Saturday. Mr. Davis has written the following account of his interview for the Associated Press:

"I saw Premier Mussolini in the very room in the Ciri Palace, the windows of which he addressed an impassioned speech to the people after the third attempt on his life in the last ten months. He rose from his desk, piled high with unfinished business, and made the Fascist salute as I entered. I returned the salute and met him standing as he came out in the space before his desk.

"An interpreter stepped forward, but the Premier laughingly said: 'If you speak slowly I shall understand you.'

"Behind me was an attendant bearing a fifty-pound package of American newspaper clippings that I had brought with me from home at the request of the management of the Associated Press for delivery to Premier Mussolini."

The clippings were of an interview given by Premier Mussolini to P. H. Winner of the Rome bureau of the Associated Press on the aspirations of Fascism and published in North America, July 24, 1925. The clippings were collected in response to an intimation the Premier was interested in knowing to what extent the interview had been printed and the opportunity of Mr. Davis's trip to Italy was taken to intrust him with their delivery.

"What is this you have?" cried Mussolini. "Something for me?"

LAUGHED AT CARICATURES. "I explained it represented one day's space devoted by American daily newspapers to one of his recent mumbled utterances. He ran through the pages with the practiced hand of an old newspaper man, exulted at several column headlines, related his own picture, laughed at caricatures and altogether showed much gratification.

"The American Press has never slighted Italy," he said. "We have received always much consideration and justice from your country. To America I always speak frankly."

PROTECTED BY STAR. "You ask why I do not protect what I call my person from these assassins? There is no need. My star protects me as Italy is protected. I shall die a natural death. As I live now there must be adventure and I must be free to come and go among the people—always my people."

"As Premier Mussolini thus emphasized 'My People,' I remarked: 'In sixty years the population of Italy has increased from twenty to forty millions. You have few colonial outlets. What is to become of your people?'

"Mussolini threw up his head like a bull buffalo, projecting his great square chin. His eyes, which are banked fires even in placid moods, began to flame. His right arm went up and his white teeth snapped with Rooseveltian brio.

"And your birthrate exceeds 500,000 per annum," I added.

A flood of sharply defined words poured from his lips.

GREAT RESOURCES. "Italy will absorb them," he cried. "We have rich undeveloped land, great resources, power, energy of body and soul, and a new race is being born into this country."

"I ask my people as an economic measure to cease importing flour and turn back to black bread. Italy always adjusts herself to needs of the hour. On the eighteenth of this month this bread order will go into effect without discomfort to anyone."

"On the subject of military aviation the Premier threw up both his hands, dashed across the room and pointed to an aluminum model of a flying machine.

COMMERCIAL AVIATION. "There is Italy's answer," he exclaimed. "Commercial, three times a week, Genoa, Rome, Palermo, passengers and freight. And other lines contemplated will be completed. We are for progress, not destruction. Italy looks to America to ratify her policies with reference to the future of civilization."

"Of Germany's admission to the League of Nations" I queried.

"We are not interested in Germany's affairs. Italy is what occupies us. Italy, first, last, forever," he said.

"The buffalo bull threw back his head again, and sniffed as a blower, whose nostrils smell the prairie, smoke, whose eyes detect an enemy. 'We, men, we will, triumph in the near future. Out of the lessons of the past we will fashion Italy's tomorrow,'" he said.

TWO COUNTRIES ALIKE. "Your country comprehends the needs of the hour," he continued. "We are alike in our principles, our aims. Our similarity is so great I can sum up in three words the whole theory of the doctrines of the two countries."

"Write it," I cried, throwing a pad of paper as one newspaper man to another. He dipped his pen into a deep ink well and wrote these three words:

"Tenacity, disciplina, coraggio (tenacity, discipline, courage). Then with a flourish of finality he added in English the words 'My work' and signed his name, Benito Mussolini, Roma 13, Settembre, 1926."

The Premier handed me the slip of paper, rose from his seat, came to attention and made the Fascist salute in farewell.

"My compliments to all America, was the last phrase of the blazon as he stood beside his desk, his eyes and nostrils opened to the future."

Ontario Seat is Offered Meighen

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 15.—Gordon C. Wilson, Conservative member elected to the House of Commons in Wentworth County yesterday, has offered his seat to Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen.

The Premier stating he considered it a privilege to do so.

BREAD AND WATER SENTENCE REDUCED

Jail Physician Cuts Ten Days of Nebraskan's Forty Days

Tekamah, Neb., Sept. 15.—County Physician H. W. Benson yesterday reduced the bread-and-water sentence of Roy Carson, thirty-five-year-old farmer liquor law violator, by ten days when he found on physical examination that Carson, who was on his seventh day's diet in the Burd county jail, was undernourished and that continuance of the diet was inadvisable.

The original sentence imposed on Carson by County Judge Oryll Chaff was sixty days in jail, with the first and last twenty days to be served on bread and water.

Under complaint of another bread-and-water prisoner, Thomas Nelson Craig, a farmer, that he was ill, "probably from eating too much raisin bread Sunday," County Physician Benson gave him a physical examination to determine his ability to withstand the diet. Nelson, who is fifty years old, was on his fourth day of diet and was held in the same cell as Carson. The report on Nelson's condition is not expected for several days.

Although the order yesterday was greeted with some relief by Carson, his attorney, R. C. Hunter, who has been hired by J. H. Chaff, brother of the judge who passed the sentence, said he would go ahead at once with his application for a temporary order restraining Burd county authorities and the State of Nebraska from keeping Carson in jail on the bread-and-water diet.

The case of Max Saltzman, sixteen, who was convicted of drunkenness and given a bread-and-water sentence, was taken before Governor McMullen, who said he felt the courts were open to Saltzman if he cared to make an appeal.

No action has yet been taken in behalf of Fred S. Dietz, who has been sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail at Harrison on an alternate ten-day bread and water sentence for liquor law violation.

Young McMaster was placed in the juvenile detention home upon his arrival here. His wife, who was seriously ill upon her arrival, was released from the hospital on Monday.

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 15.—John E. McMaster, sixteen, son of a wealthy Seattle resident, who married Jerry Adair, twenty-five, a cafe entertainer, several weeks ago and fled with her, will leave for Seattle on Thursday without his wife. Oakland police received a telegram from the older McMaster directing them to place the boy on board a ship leaving on that day.

Young McMaster was placed in the juvenile detention home upon his arrival here. His wife, who was seriously ill upon her arrival, was released from the hospital on Monday.

SMOKE FROM KATMAI

Seattle, Sept. 15.—Smoke issuing from Mount Katmai and steam from a fissure on the north side of Mount Chinik were indications of increasing activities among volcanoes of Western Alaska, reported Captain Harry W. DARING WOMEN FEATURE AVIATION RACES AT ENSBURY

(Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times)

London (by mail).—Airplanes raced this week at Ensbury Park racetrack, instead of the racehorses the course has so often seen. All the machines carried racing colors, Mrs. S. C. Elliott-Lynn's De Havilland "Moths" for example, being light blue and silver.

The greatest tribute to British airplanes, engines, and pilots lay in the fact that there was not one serious accident in the two-day racing.

It was two days of thrilling sport in beautiful country. Women were dressed in all the colors of the rainbow, and it might have been a fashionable horse race meeting. Pilots emulated the horses at the finish of the races and during the exhibition flights, tearing down the straight only a few feet above the ground with the speed of bullets.

The sensation was tremendous as the airplanes followed each other past the stands, "contour-chasing" as old pilots used to term it.

WOMAN'S GOOD FLYING

Mrs. Elliott-Lynn's flying in the first two races was excellent. She took third place in the ten mile private owners' handicap, after the disqualification for third place of Flight-Lieutenant Chick, who was flying a baby monoplane with a 30 h.p. engine.

Later Mrs. Elliott-Lynn won the last race of the day, the Light Airplane Club members' scratch race. A parachute descent from an airplane flown by Lieut.-Colonel G. L. P. Henderson caused some anxiety.

When Miss June, a London tylist, jumped from the airplane, her parachute opened after a four-second fall. She fell slowly in a dead calm for forty seconds. A gust of wind then caught her parachute as she landed, and she was dragged for many yards. People rushed to her assistance, but she had managed to

Anti-masher Device Perfected

Berlin, Sept. 15.—An electrical contrivance that is little but mighty is being recommended by German policewomen for the protection of girls against mashes. It has the appearance and size of a wrist watch and is connected by thin wires to a little battery and motor coil carried in an inside pocket of a dress or coat. It generates a low amperage shock of 1,000 volts, sufficient to knock out an ordinary man, although it would not cause permanent injury. When the wearer touches it to any part of the body of a would-be bad man, the light is over.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending ALL fear of offending.

✓ You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it for a few cents at any drug or department store simply by asking "KOTEX." Women ask for it without hesitancy.

Try Kotex. Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

MEMBERS ARRANGE CHAPTER'S TAG DAY

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., Plans Annual Street Collection

At the meeting of the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E. yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Johnston, Linden Avenue, Mrs. Graham was appointed convener of a committee to arrange for the chapter's forthcoming tag day, which will be held on October 15. Members present were allotted corners.

An invitation was received from Mrs. J. H. Gillespie for the execution of the chapter's tag day at her home on Fairfield Road on Thursday, September 23 for the purpose of hearing the report of the delegate, Mrs. Albert Griffiths, on the annual meeting of the National I.O.D.E. held at St. John's, New Brunswick.

BOYS' PIPE BAND WINS HIGH HONORS

Clever Local Players Take Third Prize in Vancouver Contest

In open competition with adult pipe bands at the recent band contest held in Vancouver, the Victoria Boys' Pipe Band in competition with adult pipe players took third prize. The Winnipeg military band took first prize, the 2nd Seaforth Highlanders' band, Vancouver, second; and Victoria Boys' Pipe Band third. The 16th Canadian Scottish band, Campbellton, took fourth prize.

Tan Wallace, son of Pipe-Major Wallace, in individual contest, won the silver rose bowl valued at $50, this prize accompanying the championship of the Pacific Coast. This young musician also won first prize for piping, the award being a silver-plated prize certificate, and third prize for piping to Scottish dancers.

Two other boys, Archie and James MacMillan, came second and third in the juvenile contest.

WOULD SEARCH OUT CRICKET CHAMPIONS

(Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times)

London, Sept. 15.—The Daily Express has put forward the proposal that the Board of Control should appoint two national cricket coaches, and that these men should be Hobbs and Rhodes.

Two years hence England will send another team to Australia. The interval is not a long one, and in the meantime it is essential that the best cricketing talent in the country should be found and developed. A wealth of material already exists in the hundreds of towns and villages throughout the kingdom.

The Board of Control, by careful organization, could arrange that no young cricketer of promise, whether batsman or bowler, remained without a trial. Once any promising talent was discovered, the work of Hobbs and Rhodes as national coaches would begin.

Be-Yourself; Don't go on Living Out of Character

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

A woman went to a psychoanalyst "just for fun." He told her a few things about herself that made her furious, but take it for what it's worth, it set her to thinking. After a while she decided to take his advice and see if anything happened. They did—several things. The canny didn't turn pink, nor did the plummy come when he phoned the first time; no, the hairbrush was for greater use. It was that she seemed suddenly to have friends—real friends, the other was that her health came back and she had almost no headaches.

She went to the analyst and off to the nearest psychoanalyst, good friends. I can save you your feelings and five dollars, or is it ten? I shall tell you one thing the gentleman said to her. He said, "Good lady, you are not sincere. You are acting out of character, all your waking hours." Then he translated his mysterious words. He told her that when she disliked a person, she put on a smile and tried to outdo herself in being nice to them; that at heart she disliked society, yet because it was smart to be seen at certain places, she went to things she abhorred day after day, week in and out.

"You are a misfit, Madame," said he. "Not that I advocate kissing women when we meet them, but I do advocate trying to like them, honestly. Then your actions and your feelings will match. If you cannot like them, avoid them. If you are in an awkward position, or have work you do not like, change it, if possible, to things you do like. Do not go on living out of character."

That is not hard to understand. Never stretching to do things they hate wear us out. Moreover, we are insincere and people are quick to detect it. "All the world's a stage, and men and women are merely players," is too true. Too many people are acting a part. A mail once said to me: "I think in German and talk in English." A school girl said: "I was wearing but I never think it. What goes on in our minds has too often no relation to our acts."

ESQUIMALT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETING

Reports of Various Undertakings Show Successful Results

The Esquimalt Women's Institute regular monthly meeting held last evening in the Parish Hall, St. Paul's Garrison Church, was well attended. Mrs. Booth, president, was in the chair.

Mrs. Brookler reported that the proceeds of the stalls undertaken by the Institute at the County Fair, held recently in the Canteen grounds, amounted to $65.60.

A report of the successful community enlightenment excursion, given by Mrs. Nicol who was heartily thanked for her work in connection with the affair.

A heavy vote of thanks was also accorded to Mrs. Booth, who, as convener of the exhibition on women's work held during the Summer, reported that the same was successful financially as in some other years, a fine display of work and garden produce had been shown.

It was decided that the next meeting of the Esquimalt Child Hygiene Council will be held on September 23 at the Church House, and will be the occasion of a jam shower for the Solarium.

Classes in dressmaking will be held under the auspices of the Institute during the winter months, and will commence early in October. Non-members as well as members will be eligible and for further information requested to phone Mrs. Booth, 6554.

A series of card parties will be held weekly, the first being arranged for September 20.

An annual contribution of $5 was voted to the Local Council of Women.

Mrs. Wise was appointed official delegate to the Conference of Islands Institutes to be held in October.

A new member, Miss Lauder, was welcomed. The hostesses for the social hour were Mesdames Wallace, Raymond, Finley and Adams.

WOMAN MEMBER IS RE-ELECTED

Mrs. Henry Bruch, Superintendent of Insurance for Alberta has arrived in Victoria to attend the annual conference of the superintendents of insurance of Canada which will take place in Victoria next week. Mr. Bruch is accompanied by Mrs. Bruch and is staying at the Dominion Hotel.

The Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Sketch Club of the Island Arts and Crafts Society, held in Beacon Hill Park, and though the weather was unpropitious some very good work was done. At 4 o'clock the members were entertained at tea by Mrs. William McGregor, Clarence Street, whose pretty rooms and cosy fire were very inviting. Next Tuesday's meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Martin, 2114 Oak Bay Avenue.

The annual meeting of the Quadra School Parent-Teacher Association was held in the auditorium of the school, Tuesday evening, September 14. The election of officers for the year 1926-27 took place, and the following persons were elected: President, Mr. P. George; first vice-president, Mr. Wm. Muncey; second vice-president, Mr. A. J. Johnson; secretary, Mrs. J. W. Gibson; treasurer, Miss M. Frank; members of executive, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Jansen, Mrs. Schmeis, Mrs. Harrison and Miss M. Humphries. Plans were discussed for programme of work during the winter months.

Fairview Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on September 11, at high noon, when Miss Marian, daughter of the late Simon P. Fraser and Mrs. Fraser, of "Ingleside," Woodstock, Ontario, became the bride of Edgar Charles Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Richards, of Victoria. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter Ellis, M.A., B.D., in the presence of many friends. The bride, who entered the church with her mother, wore a gown of amber and brown flat crepe with hat to match. She carried a nosegay of hollyhock and monarda in harmonizing shades. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. J. A. Fraser, 1540 Teah Avenue, where fouring Vancouver Island Mr. and Mrs. Richards will reside at "Woodvine Lodge," Con Cliffe, B.C. Mr. Richards is a graduate of the University of British Columbia and Mrs. Richards of the University of Alberta.

MISS AGNES MacPAIL

AUTHORS HEAR OF RECENT CONVENTION

September Meeting of Victoria and Island Branch Held Last Night

The September meeting of the Victoria and Island Branch Canadian Authors' Association was held last evening at 985 St. Patrick Street, at the kind invitation of Mr. J. R. Muncey. There was a large attendance of members and after a short business meeting the evening was filled with the discussion of interesting topics. Several letters were read from secretaries of various branches of the Canadian Authors' Association from individual delegates to the recent convention in Vancouver, thanking the Victoria and Islands Branch for the delightful two days spent in Victoria and referring in terms of glowing appreciation to their entertainment by His Hon. the Lieutenant-Governor, the Premier, Hon. John Oliver, Mr. John Hosi, provincial librarian, and Mrs. Cree, the archivist, and Mr. and Mrs. Butchart at Benvenuto.

Mr. Fraser read from "The Canadian Bookman" a delightful account of the convention by Mrs. Constance Woodrow. Miss M. Eugenie Perry contributed some valuable information to writers, gleaned from her visits to editorial sanctuaries in Toronto when attending the Triennial of the Canadian Women's Press Club this Summer.

Mr. C. C. Pemberton brought a copy of the Weekly Gazette of September 11, 1926, in which the journalistic group of the association found much of interest. Also some rare photographs of a remarkable oak in Uplands which had attracted and fascinated Marjorie Pickthall, founderess of the Victoria and Islands Branch, were shown by Mr. Pemberton with an interesting story attached.

"The Voice of Canada," a charming little publication compiled by A. M. Stephens of Vancouver for use in the public schools, was shown by Mrs. Rathburn. Mrs. Evans spoke of the various groups being formed within the association for the study and production of poetry and prose. After the serving of refreshments a hearty vote of thanks was unanimously passed to Mr. Simonds for a delightful evening.

POUND PARTY TO AD W.C.T.U. HOME

The expenses of the W.C.T.U. Rescue Home on Ida Street are heavy and although Mrs. Galtier's brother-in-law, the most nourishing foods are needed for the young mothers and it is for the purpose of the up-keep of this deserving institution that an appeal is being made to-morrow.

Victorians interested in this cause to give their assistance in cash or kind.

Donations to the Annual POUND Party held to augment the supplies necessary for this organization that helps poor unfortunate girls when they are in greatest need of assistance. On these annual occasions the home is always open for inspection.

Under the auspices of the Liberal Women's Forum a special meeting of the Liberal women and Liberal workers in the recent campaign, will be held in the Liberal headquarters, corner Broadway and Government Street, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. All who are interested are requested to attend.

WILL TRACE SOURCE OF CIVILIZATION

Interesting Course of Lectures by Rev. H. T. Archbold Announced

Considerable interest has already been aroused by the announcement of the course of three lectures by Rev. H. T. Archbold on "Some Sources of Modern Civilization." Mr. Archbold is a very able extempore speaker. He is known as a close student of social development, and has taken an honored degree in history. These lectures, which will trace the influence of ancient Asiatic and European nations which have shaped present civilization, will be popular in character, and will not only be very interesting to the public, but also of great value to high school and college students.

The dates fixed are Monday evening, October 11, 18 and 25, and the lectures will be given in the Memorial Hall at 8 o'clock.

MOTHER OF SECRETARY OF LABOR DIES

Sharon, Pa., Sept. 15.—Mrs. Esther Nicholson Davis, mother of Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, died in a hospital here yesterday after brief illness. She was in her seventy-fourth year.

Miss Jean Root Will Be Heard To-morrow Evening

Miss Jean Root, a talented reader of New York, will give a programme to-morrow evening at 8.30 o'clock at St. Mark's Hall, Bolestone Road, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, the proceeds of which will be used for the expenses of the club.

After graduating in dramatic art from the Ontario Ladies' College, Miss Root went on tour with the Glasgow Quadrille, giving character sketches and imitations. The following season she was under the management of the Canadian Musical Bureau. It was during a Summer season at the Royal Alexander Theatre with the Percy Haswell Players, that Allen Fawcett advised her to go to New York. He was then manager of the company in which Maude Adams was playing Peter Pan. She was then engaged to play in the "Christmas Carol" with Tom Terris in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington. She was thirty weeks on the Keith-Orpheum Circuit and after that played with several companies in stock and on the road.

Last year Miss Root had charge of the dramatic department of the Du Fresnoy Girls' Club in New York.

Miss Root's programme includes character sketches and scenes from modern plays.

During her stay in Victoria, Miss Root is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barge, Saanich Road.

WELCOME CLUB TO MEET

The Welcome Club will meet on Thursday, September 16, at the Y.W.C.A. Supper will be served at six o'clock. This is the missionary evening and Miss Gunn has kindly consented to give the girls a talk on her work among the Chinese. The club will be glad to welcome new members at any time.

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin Underdeveloped Kids

Children Love Them Because They Are Sugar Coated and as Easy to Take as Candy

It's your duty, Mother, to see that the frail, peaked, sickly youngster grows up to be strong in body, keen in mind and robust in health.

Extracted from the livers of the lowly codfish are the health, weight and strength producing vitamins that are found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South America. About them and so does Vancouver Drug Co., MacFarlane Drug Co. and Owl Drug Co. and if your children need building up ask for these tablets to-day if you want to give your loved ones a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones. But be sure and get McCoy's. They are not expensive—60 tablets—40 cents and if you are not pleased with the improvement after 30 days—your money back. A very sickly child, aged 9, gained 12 pounds in seven months and is strong and healthy. One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days. (Adv.)

BASEBALL TENNIS GOLF, BOWLING

Gate For Big Fight Will Break Former Record By $100,000

Rickard Announces Sale of Tickets Now $1,400,000; Tremendous Demand

Trying to Laugh Off Proposed Injunction to Stop Fight; Both Fighters Idle

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—Arrangements for the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight championship in the Sesqui-Centennial stadium next week went forward yesterday without interruption. The injunction issued by the Indiana court last night restraining Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, from fighting before he carries out the contract of the Chicago Coliseum Club to meet Harry Tunney, is not effective in Pennsylvania unless action is taken in this state, said Attorney-General Woodruff yesterday.

To be on the safe side in the event legal action is taken here, Tex Rickard yesterday arranged a conference with Mayor Kendrick for to-day at which steps will be taken to oppose any move to stop the bout. The city's legal advisor will be present.

Rickard pointed out yesterday the officers of the Chicago Coliseum Club would have to put up bond of at least $3,000,000 as a guarantee against loss to the defendants if a suit were brought here.

The gate receipts, it has been estimated, will exceed $1,500,000 and the state requires a bond of double the amount of possible loss in the event the suit were thrown out of court and there was a financial loss.

HAVEN'T THE PRICE

"They haven't money enough to pay the premium on such a bond," said Rickard, "and I doubt whether the Coliseum Club will attempt to press the case in this state."

Edwin M. Abbott, counsel for the Sesqui-Centennial association, concurred in the opinion of the attorney-general that the Indiana decision was not effective in Pennsylvania.

Tex Rickard said yesterday that with the fight only nine days off, the record gate for the Dempsey-Tunney fight is on the verge of being passed. He said the sale of tickets thus far has brought in more than $1,400,000 and that it is not in the least doubtful that the fight will be a complete sell-out and that the Dempsey-Tunney record will be broken by about $100,000.

TUNNEY RESTS

Stroudsburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—Gene Tunney yesterday ended one of the most complete holidays he has fitted into his programme since he began training for his championship bout with Jack Dempsey. The day was one of almost 100 per cent rest. He did a little less than eight miles of roadwork in the forenoon and called it a day.

Early in the afternoon the challenger and his manager, Billy Gibson, followed through nine holes of golf. Gibson was by the hole in the match play and two strokes in medal play.

Tunney continued to hit long tee shots but his approach and putting left something to be desired. He is still a great pugilist on the golf course.

To-day will see him back into the ring with boxing also in order. Thursday, Ring sessions are planned also for Saturday and Sunday. Monday will bring a period of idleness and his last appearance before the bout will probably be next Tuesday.

The contemplated arrangements now provide for a movement on Philadelphia one week from to-day with the challenger spending the night before the championship fight in some quiet spot in or near the Sesqui-Centennial city.

Atlantic City, N.J., Sept. 15.—After a day of rest from the dreaded training grind, Jack Dempsey will resume work to-day in semi-privacy, with 100 or more newspaper correspondents and camera men as the only spectators.

The gates of the Greyhound race track, where the world's heavyweight champion is putting on the finishing grind, Jack Dempsey will be the general public to-day and tomorrow. He will declare another holiday on Friday and on Saturday will start the process of tuning up.

Dempsey says that by working in private he can toss aside all caution or restraint without regard to the wishes of the spectators. He intends

"Honey Boy" Bill

White Sox Rookie One of Greatest Finds of Season

BILL HUNNEFELD

Next to Tony Lazzeri of the Yankees, Bill Hunnefeld, rookie infielder with the White Sox, is considered the best pickup of the 1926 American League season. "Honey Boy," as the fans call him, has been hitting and fielding in a sensational manner all year. His work on the paths has likewise been of a high order, ranking with the leaders in the sack-snatching department.

Many Cougars Seen

Near Shawanigan And Deer Being Killed

Unusual Hunting Condition Prevails in Shawanigan District; Birds Plentiful

Shawanigan Lake, Sept. 15.—The opening of the shooting season saw fewer birds than usual at the lake owing to the restrictions on grouse in the Shawanigan and Helmecken districts. The position at Shawanigan is rather awkward. The dividing line runs from Mill Bay, near the Mill Bay Inn, through Shawanigan just north of the sawmill. No birds can be shot north of the line, but the southern portion is open.

Unusually early in the season, the birds are plentiful, but owing to the extreme dryness of the bush difficult to approach.

In the bushy area, usually a good district for birds and deer, this year is blank. Those who journey there for sport report the presence of numerous cougars, one having been shot and several seen.

George Orr got a 135-pound buck on Stick Mountain, and Ed Lewington got a six-point buck just off the Mill Bay Road.

Quail are plentiful and the prospect for pheasants are good.

LAUGHED IT OFF

Dempsey and his business representative, who were in Philadelphia to-day, were inclined to laugh it off.

"What's another injunction to us?" Dempsey said. "We've been getting them for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Another court tangle means no more to me than another flivver does to Henry Ford."

Dempsey laughed yesterday, doing as he pleased. In the afternoon, he went out to the dog track to crawl into his ring togs and pose for a few pictures.

Two additional detectives joined the pair now guarding the champion yesterday. They were Jack Smith and Johnny Brodick, noted members of New York's strong-arm squad. They are specialists in breaking up riotous disorders. They will live at Jack's bungalow, joining forces with Mike Trant, the Chicago detective-sergeant, who has been with the champion for three weeks.

Another Chicago detective, Fred Tapscott, also is on duty, sometimes at the bungalow, but chiefly at the camp.

"HAIR-GROOM"

Keeps Hair Combed, Glossy Well-Groomed All Day

"Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which costs only a few cents a jar at any drugstore. Millions use it because it gives the hair that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to the hair.

It is the only hair cream to good dress both in business and on social occasions. Even stubborn, unruly or shampooed hair stays combed all day in any style you like.

"Hair-Groom" helps grow thick, heavy, lustrous hair.

Eustace Storey Fifth in Qualifying Round, Eleven Strokes Behind Jones

Jack Westland of Seattle, and Roy Moe of Portland Stay in Running

Shorthills, N.J., Sept. 15.—The magic clubs of Bobby Jones paced America's foremost amateurs successfully through the qualification test for the national amateur championship to a dramatic finish on the sand-petted links of Baltusrol yesterday.

Three thousand spectators trailed the famous amateur through another brilliant march over the rolling foothills of the Orange mountains yesterday afternoon as he raced ahead of the pack to post a 73 for a medal winning total of 143. But it was not until three hours later, with dusk settling down on the links, that they had the privilege of looking upon the day's most stirring struggle.

Three thousand spectators trailed the famous amateur through another brilliant march over the rolling foothills of the Orange mountains yesterday afternoon as he raced ahead of the pack to post a 73 for a medal winning total of 143. But it was not until three hours later, with dusk settling down on the links, that they had the privilege of looking upon the day's most stirring struggle.

Four other players, M. R. Stevenson, of Chevy Chase, Md., Eddie Held of St. Louis, M. L. Massingill of Fort Worth, Texas, and Frank W. Dyer of Memphis, were grouped with Gunn and Oulmet in the post-round contest for the last five places in the list, and it was upon Oulmet that interest was directed, for only a year ago the bespectacled former champion in a similar test went down to defeat in the most stunning surprise of the season.

QUIMET WINS OUT

There was a breathless suspense as the popular veteran hooked his second shot of the six cornered play-off into a trap at the left of the first green. Once more it appeared that grim fate was to reach out and detain him from the prize.

But with a spectacular flourish he hoisted the pellet from the sand and landed it within six feet of the hole. He then sank his putt for a birdie four to clinch his qualification.

Massingill, playing straight and true all the way down the fairway, also gathered a four, while Gunn, despite a poor run up shot, and Held, after hooking into a tree came through with par five.

At the time Dempsey was working in the shipyard, having surrendered all ambitions to be a fighter following a start that was neither encouraging nor promising.

Forest Hills, Sept. 15.—Exhibiting the most erratic brand of tennis he has shown since becoming national champion six years ago, William T. Tilden limped to his second victory yesterday in the title tournament.

"Big Bill," still favoring his straitjacketed style, defeated a young protegee, Neil Sullivan, of Bethlehem, Pa., as he did on Monday in disposing of John Van Ryn, Princeton youth.

The titleholder, finding few of his strokes in consistent working order, dropped the first and was given a lively tussle before he gained control. He put together a match at 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.

With Tilden off form and his bid for a new championship fading, the other fifteen tournament rounds were reached the third round in a series of hard-fought matches that produced numerous upsets.

JAPS PASS OUT

The most conspicuous of these eliminated Japan's two best players, Kiyoshi Kuwamura and Kiyoshi Kuwamura, who were overpowered by the fiery attack of Dr. George King, of New York, in straight sets, 6-4, 8-6, 8-6.

While Kuwamura, another Japanese Davis Cup performer, was put out by Arnold W. Jones, of Providence, R.I., in five sets, 2-6, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2, 6-1.

By his victory Jones gained the right to oppose Tilden to-day. Another seeded entry faded from the competition when Alfred H. Chipin Jr., of Springfield, Mass., lost to the conqueror of Tilden and a Davis Cup team candidate, fell before the hard hitting of Francis T. Hunter, New York veteran, 6-2, 5-7, 8-6, 6-3.

FRENCHMEN WIN

Among Tilden's foremost rivals, William M. Johnston had a day of idleness through default, but both Vincent Richards and Rene Lacoste encountered some opposition before they reached the final.

A flying start and dropped a set before defeating George Lott Jr., of Chicago, at 6-0, 6-2, 6-4, while Lacoste found Malcolm T. Still, Boston youth, a stubborn foe after the latter had overcome his early unsteadiness.

The Frenchman's victory was scored at 6-0, 6-3, 6-1.

John Borotra also had trouble overcoming Watson J. Washburn, former Davis Cup player, at 7-9, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3, in a match that ended in semi-darkness.

Eugene Homans, Englewood, N.J., 8-6, 7-5, 10-8.

Richard A. Jones Jr., New York, 8-7, 7-5, 10-8.

Max Marston, Philadelphia, 8-7, 8-6, 10-8.

Fred J. Wright, Boston, 7-9, 8-1, 10-8.

Roy M. Moe, Portland, Ore., 7-9, 8-1, 10-8.

Parker W. Whittemore, Boston, 7-9, 8-1, 10-8.

W. C. Fowles Jr., Pittsburg, 8-7, 9-7, 10-8.

Dexter Cummings, Chicago, 7-9, 8-1, 10-8.

William M. Reekie, Montreal, N.J., 8-7, 9-7, 10-8.

Jack Westland, Seattle, 7-9, 8-1, 10-8.

Watts Gunn, Atlanta, 8-0, 8-2, 10-8.

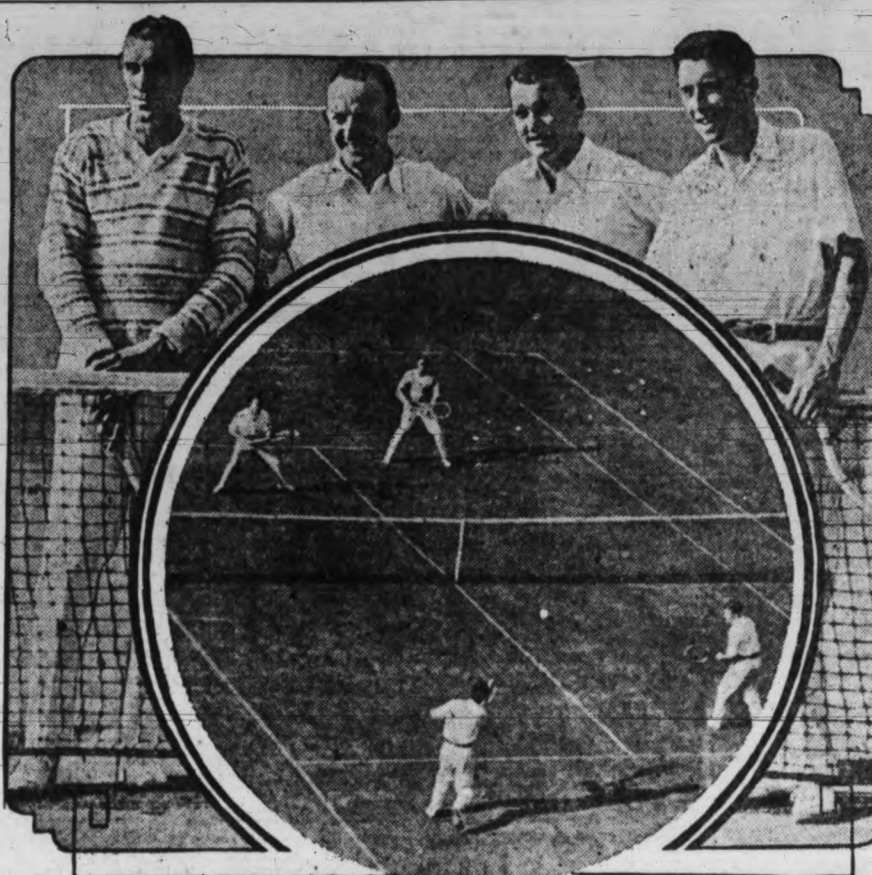

M. B. Stevenson, Chevy Chase, Md., 8-7, 9-7, 10-8.

Eddie Held, St. Louis, 8-7, 9-7, 10-8.

TEN ROUNDS WITH DEMPSEY

By JOE WILLIAMS (Copyrighted 1926 by Nea Service Inc.)

By now the world knows how the two Jacks—Dempsey and Kearns—split. But only a few know exactly how this friendship that was destined to run into $1,000,000 closed corporation was begun.

Briefly, it was begun in a "Frisco" grocery over two large loaves of bread. Dempsey was working in the shipyard, having surrendered all ambitions to be a fighter following a start that was neither encouraging nor promising.

Prosperity didn't come to the two right away. They had plenty of tough pickings before Tex Rickard gave them their shot against Jess Willard at Toledo.

Coming east in the pre-championship days, they got as far as Chicago when the bottom dropped out of the excitement. Kearns hooked his diamonds to get enough for hotel and board.

This was in the winter of 1917. Tommy Walsh, the Chicago manager who handled Joe Mandot, Pat Moore and Jack Malone, tells how Kearns got him to fix up so Dempsey would work out at Howard Carr's gymnasium in the loop.

WHIPPED SMITH IN ROUND

"Kearns was desperate," recalls Walsh. "He was killing everybody in one breath that Dempsey was the next heavyweight champion and in the next he was offering $20,000 to take him on." What a buy that would have been.

Dempsey and Kearns got a break when a matchmaker from Racine, Wis., who had been looking for a pushover to send against Homer Smith, who was then shaping up as a legitimate opponent for Willard.

Kearns offered him Dempsey for anything he wanted to pay, which was little enough, the matchmaker not having heard of either Dempsey or Kearns. The two had to pay their own carfare to get to Racine where the fight was held, but the trip was worth while. Dempsey won in a round.

Hugh Macdonald, Edmonton; J. E. Washburn, Vancouver and Donald Macdonald, Jasper.

In addition to the championship fight, there are two other fights, each of sixteen players left to battle for the other trophies, being the survivors of the fifty-four who took off to-day.

The brothers Jones of Vancouver, have impressed the local experts and it is predicted that each will travel quite a fair way towards the ultimate goal.

ROD AND GUN MAGAZINE

A collection of articles of real sport in various parts of the Dominion sums up the contents of the September issue of Rod and Gun, the Canadian sport magazine, which is just published.

An interesting article on some moose experiences, principally in Eastern Canada, by William J. McNully, appeared followed by an amusing story of a British Columbia trip, "Poor Fish," by C. J. Broderick.

Donnydale Dale in this latest issue deals with some experiences. "Living at Close Quarters With the Moose in Nova Scotia," by J. W. Winslow writes an interesting story of the Saw Whet and Screech owl.

Fishing notes, the regular department edited by G. P. Sloan, contains several articles of diversified angling interest, and G. S. Landis guns and ammunition department carries a number of instructive articles for the shooter. In the contents is also a good article on the slaughter of ducks by floating oil on Hamilton Bay.

GERMAN FIGHTER LOSSES

New York, Sept. 15.—Bud Gorman of Kenosha, Wis., was awarded the judges' decision over Franz Diener, German heavyweight champion, in the main ten-round event at the Queensboro Stadium to-night, making his initial bow in an American arena, put up a brisk battle at the outset but tired in the late rounds.

DILLON IN A DRAW

Portland, Ore., Sept. 15.—Ernie Owens, of Los Angeles, and Harry Dillon, of Winnipeg, fought a ten-round draw in the main event of a feature card here last night.

Ruggers Will Gather Monday To Talk Over Prospects For Year

Intermediate and Senior Leagues Will Get Together For General Talk

Prospects For Senior Rugby Not Over-bright; Intermediates in Good Shape

With the arrival of the Fall rains the thoughts of rugby enthusiasts are turning towards their winter sport. For some days there has been a discussion as to the season prospects, but only yesterday was a decision reached as to when the first meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union was to be held.

On Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce all rugby players, and other folks interested, will be invited to a meeting.

There will be a full discussion on both senior and intermediate rugby and plans will be formed for the coming season. It is expected that the opening game will be played early next month.

THE OUTLOOK

There is no question about the ability of the Intermediate League carrying on during the winter. There are at least six good clubs ready to enter the league.

Prosperity didn't come to the two right away. They had plenty of tough pickings before Tex Rickard gave them their shot against Jess Willard at Toledo.

Coming east in the pre-championship days, they got as far as Chicago when the bottom dropped out of the excitement. Kearns hooked his diamonds to get enough for hotel and board.

AGAIN REPRESENTS
EAST KOOTENAY, B.C.

Hon. J. H. King, former Minister of Public Works, was re-elected to the House of Commons yesterday to sit for East-Kootenay. Dr. King is expected to represent British Columbia in the new Cabinet. Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King will form.

retained Yarmouth, which was one of their few Maritime seats in the last House.

The Liberal Party's second loss in the seaboard province was Antigonish-Guysboro, the former constituency of Hon. E. M. Macdonald, Minister of National Defence in the Mackenzie King Government. John C. Douglas, Conservative, was returned there.

To compensate for these two Nova Scotia losses the Liberals made one gain by defeating A. de Witt Foster in Kings-Hants. J. O. Hisey, Liberal, was elected in the former Conservative stronghold.

The net result of the Nova Scotia poll thus was to increase the Conservative strength by one seat.

P.E.I. GOES LIBERAL

The Liberal Party started its victorious climb upward when returns from the little province of Prince Edward Island started to trick in. Four members sit for the island in Parliament, and three of these will be Liberals. This is a net gain of one for the Liberals and results from the election of Hon. J. E. Sinclair, former minister without portfolio in the King Government, in Queens. The other Queens seat also went Liberal.

NEW BRUNSWICK GAINS

The first important Liberal gains were registered in New Brunswick, the third Maritime Province. The net outcome of the New Brunswick poll was to give the Liberal Party three gains at the expense of the Conservatives. The seats which swung back into the Liberal column after the Conservative landslide of last Fall were Kent, Northumberland and Hestigouche-Madawaska.

In Kent A. J. Doucet, famous as the sponsor of the Margaret "Joy" charges, went down to decisive defeat before Alfred Bourgeois, Liberal. Before the election Dr. Doucet's allegation against members of the King Government were completely discredited when an official investigation found them groundless. This was followed by the verdict of Mr. Doucet's constituents, turning him out of office.

ONTARIO RHALANX BROKEN

It was the Ontario returns that spelled the doom of the Meighen Government. Conservative leaders throughout Canada were staggered as their chief citadel began to crumble.

First returns showed the nine Toronto seats had remained staunchly

Conservative, and these were followed by other figures, indicating the Tories were holding their strength in some of the other city ridings.

Then came the deluge which swept the Liberal Party into power. One after another the seats of the province flashed out the news that their former Conservative members had been defeated, and as this movement it became apparent the Meighen Government had been definitely rejected by the Canadian people. Only a Tory landslide on the prairies could have offset the Ontario switch, and this, of course, did not occur. Altogether Liberals and Liberal-Progressives carried twenty-seven Ontario seats, a switch of thirteen.

Most of the Ministers of the Meighen administration were elected in Ontario as in the Maritimes, but two of them were defeated. Hon. Donald Sutherland, Minister without portfolio, could not carry his seat of South Oxford, while Hon. Raymond Moran, Minister without portfolio, was defeated in East Essex.

MINISTERS RETURNED

Hon. E. B. Ryckman, Minister of Public Works, had no difficulty in retaining his seat of Toronto East; Hon. R. J. Manion, Postmaster-General, was returned in Fort William; Sir Henry Drayton, Minister without portfolio and Acting Premier, carried West York again; Hon. J. D. Chaplin, Minister of Trade and Commerce, was successful in Lincoln; Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of National Defence, retained his seat of Wellington South.

LADIES' FORTUNES VARY

A feature of the Ontario poll was the varying fortunes of the only two women running in the Dominion. Miss Agnes MacPhail, Progressive, was elected for the third time in Southeast Grey, where the sole lady member of the House of Commons evidently has a strong hold on the electorate.

The other woman candidate, Miss Kathleen Bennett, Liberal, ran against the solid Tory opposition of Toronto, where she contested the eastern seat of that city against Mr. Ryckman, and was badly defeated.

T. L. Church, famous for his long tenure of office as Mayor of Toronto, and a leading Ontario Conservative, had no difficulty in maintaining his hold on Toronto Northeast.

DEAN OF HOUSE DEFEATED

An older Conservative figure in the person of W. F. Maclean was defeated in York South. Mr. Maclean, who was the oldest member of the last House and one of the most respected members in it, lost his seat not to the Liberal Party, but to the straight Conservative candidate.

Following a split in the party, York South Conservatives refused to renominate the "dean of Parliament," but he ran anyway. His defeat came after many years of active work in Parliament.

North York, which rejected Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King last Fall, remained Conservative by returning Lieut.-Col. T. H. Lennox, who had defeated Mr. King before.

QUEBEC LIBERALS SOLID

Conservative leaders who had counted on breaking into the Liberal stronghold of Quebec found the French-Canadian province the most disappointing point in the whole election field. Returns from every part of Quebec early last night revealed that Conservative predictions of "more than twelve seats" there were hopelessly out. In the end the Conservatives carried no seats in Quebec.

The usual Liberal landslide in Quebec defeated two Conservative cabinet ministers, Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Minister of Justice, and Hon. Andrew Fauteux, Solicitor-General. Patenaude, who had made desperate efforts to break the Quebec Liberal strength by a last-minute union with Mr. Meighen, not only failed in this objective, but was rejected emphatically himself by the voters of Jacques Cartier, where Theodore Rheume, K.C., was elected. Mr. Fauteux lost out in Saguenay, scene of the famous by-election of last Autumn, G. D. Morin, Liberal, being elected.

Sir George Deley, Secretary of State, and one of the few Tories elected in Quebec last Fall, was successful again in Argenteuil.

FORMER MINISTERS RETURNED

All the former ministers of the Mackenzie King Government in Quebec were successful. Their majorities in most cases were decisive. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former Minister of Justice; Hon. Lucien Cannon, former Solicitor-General; and Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, former Minister of Marine, all were re-elected.

The riding of the late Hon. George Bolvin, former Minister of Customs, remained Liberal, as had been anticipated, electing another member of the late minister's family.

A colorful personality was returned in the person of Henri Bourassa, independent Liberal, running in Labelle. Mr. Bourassa had no difficulty in retaining the seat which he captured last Fall.

The Conservatives held their strength well in Montreal. R. W. White, veteran politician and journalist, won again in Mount Royal, while C. H. Cahan was returned in St. Lawrence-St. George, another division of the metropolis.

MANITOBA HELPS LIBERALS

The prairies started to pile up a Liberal majority when the Manitoba returns commenced to come westward. In the last election the Liberal Party held but one seat in Manitoba, while the Conservatives held seven, the Progressives a like number and Labor two seats. Final returns from Manitoba showed a complete switch with the election of four Liberals, four Progressives, three Liberal-Progressives and two Labor men. Not counting the Progressives and Labor men, who have given the Liberals support in the past, the Liberal strength in Manitoba thus has been raised to eleven out of seventeen members. Instead of seven seats the Conservatives have none in Manitoba.

MEIGHEN DEFEATED

This anti-Conservative landslide in the only prairie province where the party had any substantial strength before, carried before it Premier Meighen himself. Mr. Meighen was defeated in his riding of Portage la Prairie by E. A. McPherson, Liberal-Progressive.

The sweep also defeated Hon. Robert Rogers in Winnipeg South. A former Minister of Public Works in the Borden Government, and at one time a dominant figure in Canadian politics, Mr. Rogers could not withstand the anti-Meighen onslaught which raced through the province.

In two other Winnipeg seats the Labor Party retained its two former seats, J. S. Woodsworth being returned in the northeast division of the city and A. A. Hays in the north division. With the election of a Labor man in Calgary subsequently the Labor Party raised its representation in Parliament from two to three.

Among the Liberal-Progressives elected was Robert Forke in Brandon. Mr. Forke was leader of the Progressive Party in the House for several seasons, but resigned a few months ago when the former group as a separate entity began to crumble. Mr. Forke is a supporter of the King Government, and had no difficulty in retaining his seat.

As last Autumn, Saskatchewan refused to give the Conservative Party a single seat, and it cut down the Progressive strength in order to increase its Liberal delegation in Parliament. Final returns showed that out of twenty-one Saskatchewan seats, sixteen had gone Liberal, two Progressive and two Liberal-Progressive. One seat was still doubtful this afternoon.

DUNNING RE-ELECTED

Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Railways in the King Government and former Premier of Saskatchewan, led the Liberal landslide in Saskatchewan with a clear-cut victory in Regina, where the Conservative Party threw every ounce of strength into the fight against him.

In Prince Albert, Mr. Hon. Mackenzie King was returned by a substantial majority. His re-election had been regarded as certain and contrasted strikingly with the defeat of the rival party leader in Portage

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture in the King Government, carried Melville easily, rounding out the Liberal Cabinet representation in the great grain-growing province.

The Conservatives faced almost similar defeat in Alberta, where, as anticipated the United Farmers dominated the election. Of sixteen seats, the farmer organization captured eleven, following their remarkable sweep in the provincial poll of this year. The only Conservative seat in Alberta was that of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Minister of Finance in the Meighen Government, who was returned in Calgary. Labor also gained a seat in Calgary.

Liberal strength in Alberta includes three members, but from the United Farmers the party expects strong support.

The only Liberal Cabinet Minister in Alberta, Hon. Charles Stewart, former Minister of the Interior, was return in Edmonton.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Liberal tide halted at the Rocky Mountain. In British Columbia the Conservative Party increased its strength, leaving only one Liberal seat, that of Hon. J. H. King in East Kootenay. The Liberal Party, however, will receive the support of A. W. Neil, independent of Comox-Alberni. The result in Skeena, a former Liberal riding, was doubtful this afternoon, but J. C. Brady, Conservative, was leading Alfred Stork by 429 votes with twenty out of eight-five polls still unreported.

MURDER CHARGE

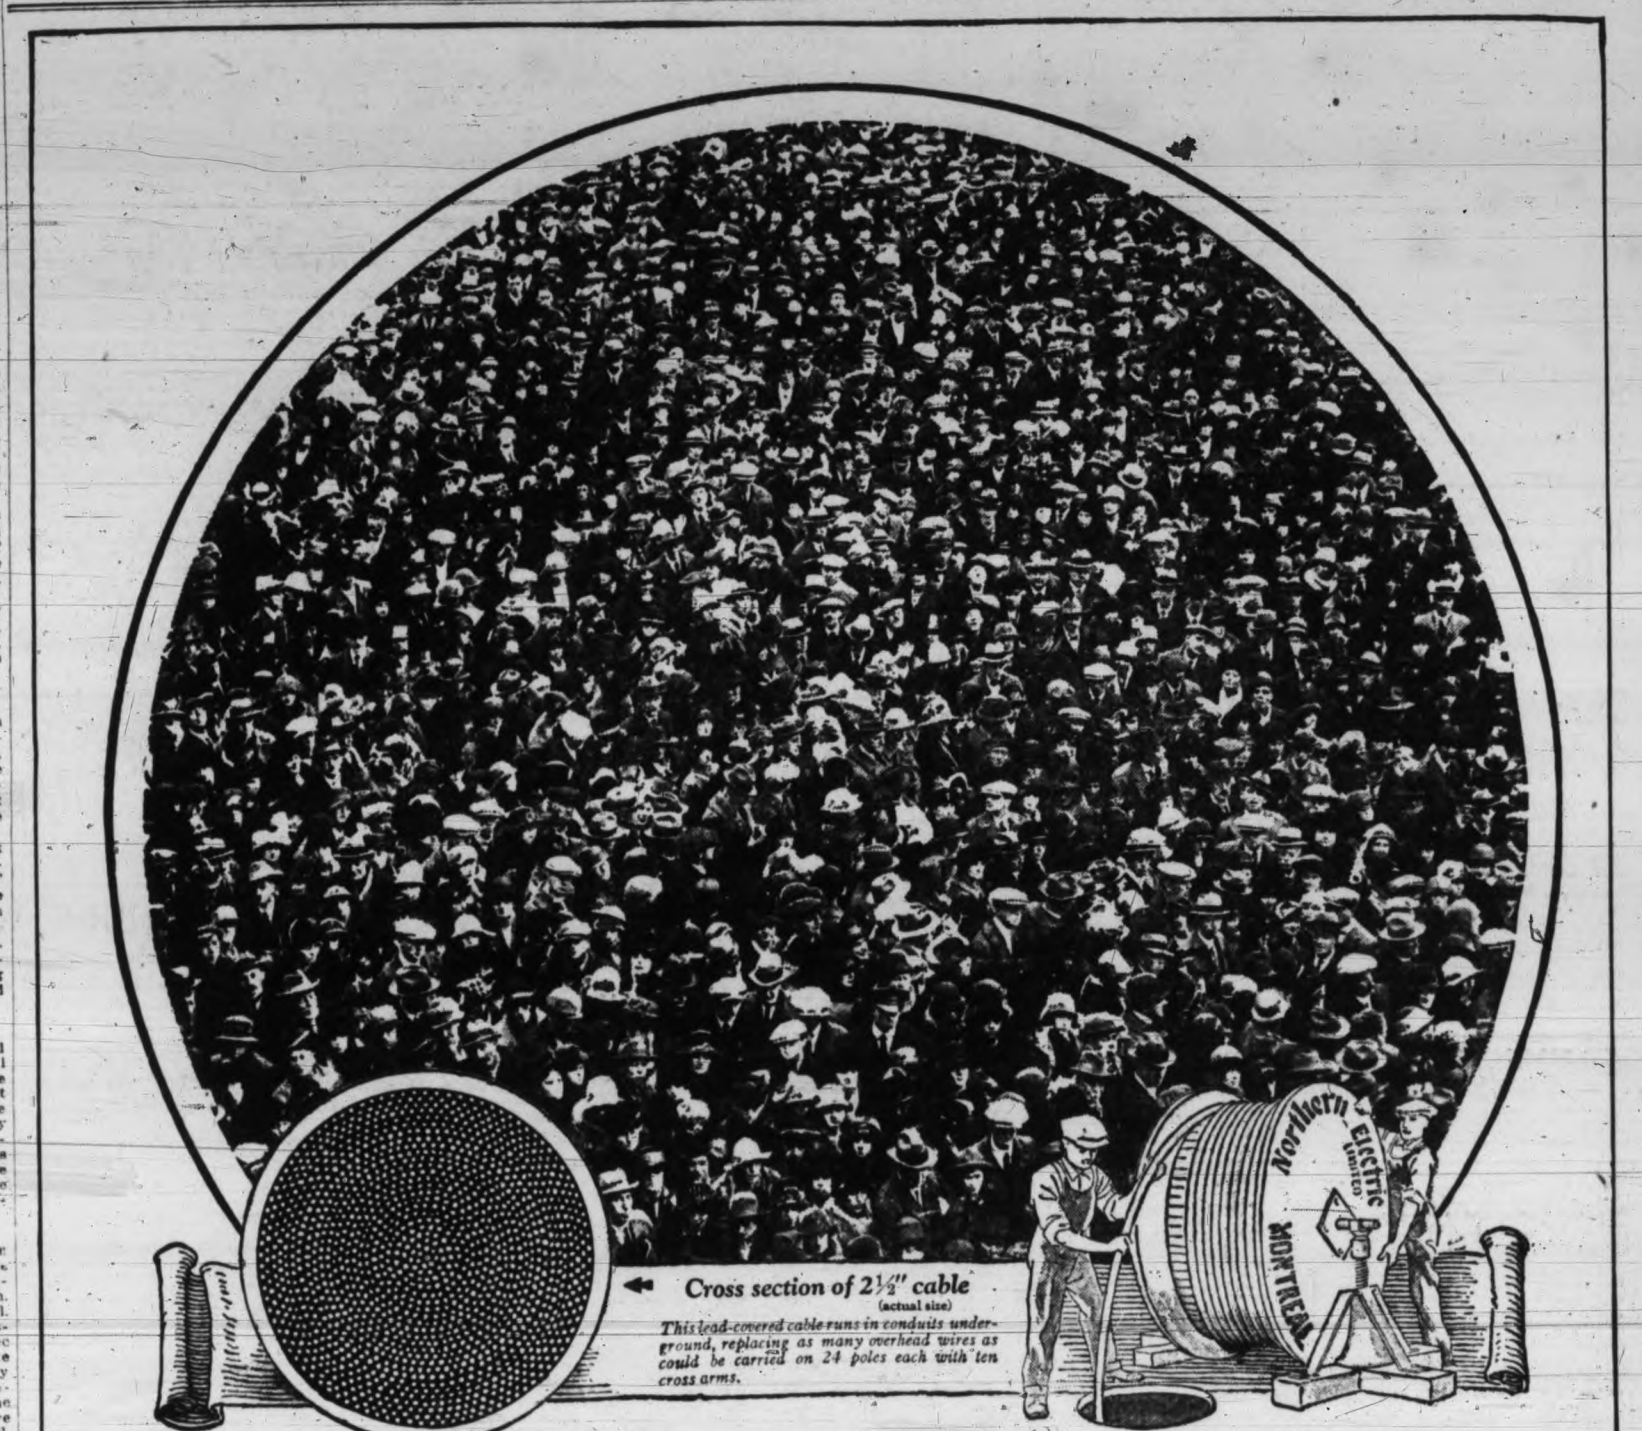

Somerville, N.J., Sept. 15.—Indictments charging murder were returned here this afternoon against Mrs. Francis Stevens Hall, her brothers, Henry and Willie Stevens, and Henry De La Bruyere Carpendor, Mrs. Hall's cousin, in connection with the Hall-Mills murder four years ago.

Oppose Placing of
"For Sale" Signs

The placing of "for sale" signs on houses and vacant properties was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the salesmen of the Victoria Real Estate Board yesterday.

The meeting finally passed a motion stating that the salesmen of the Real Estate Board deemed it advisable for the city and municipalities to pass a by-law prohibiting the placing of "for sale" signs on such property.

2,400 people may converse with ease through a small lead tube

IMAGINE the roar of 2,400 voices confined within the walls of one huge room!

Imagine the babel of confusion if the people in that room should try to shout messages across to each other! Yet, through a lead tube, only 2 1/2 inches in diameter, 2,400 people may converse at the same time with ease, without confusion and in strict privacy.

This lead tube (illustrated in section above) is the casing of a Northern Electric telephone cable, made up of over 1,200 pairs of insulated wires, each pair connecting at one end with a telephone instrument and at the other with a central exchange. In the larger Canadian cities there are scores of such telephone cables.

The rapid development of the telephone created the need for unusual equipment and devices—telephone instruments, exchange equipment and special wires and cables.

Fortunately, Canadian enterprise undertook the production of this great volume of material. Already over one million telephones have been made in Canada by Canadian workmen, and nearly three-quarters of a million miles of wire manufactured into underground cables.

In one department alone of the Northern Electric Company plant, telephone wire is made at the rate of a thousand miles a day. The maintenance and growth of telephone service in Canada, apart from its other benefits, must be considered a very direct stimulant to Canadian industry.

Wall Street TO-DAY

at Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, Sept. 15 (R. P. Clark & Co.)—The tone of to-day's market was quiet, irregular. An early recovery in values in which General Motors was one of the market's prominent features attracted a heavy volume of profit taking, soft spots were uncovered, which were not uncovered by the market's irregular appearance.

The week's car leading figures as published to-day were of special interest and showed the high record of all time. Other factors such as business forecasts, the weekly summaries of the steel industry and while the steel review showed no sign of change in seasonal business, the day's developments leaned towards the favorable side.

To-day's market reflected considerable evening up of accounts but the disposition to pursue the selling side as was in evidence early this week was again the order of things in the late dealings, and as a result we may have to contend with more irregularity for the time being.

New York, Sept. 15 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says: "The weekly summaries of the steel situation presented unchanged views on the property existing in the trade."

Rail inquiries before Chicago mills for 45,000 tons, with sizeable ton, going in other areas. Automobile plants are holding to a high rate of motor output, with indications of continuation of this condition through October. Farm implement makers are anticipating broader operations this fall.

"Steel producers will continue satisfied to have September continue the July-August average," flow business, substantially what the first half of the month has done, though in no line has there been any significant change, seasonal or otherwise," comments Iron Age.

"With a slight increase in Youngstown, direct production, both for the steel corporation and the independent, is still running somewhat above 65 per cent."

This grain market that present tin plate orders will keep mills well occupied until early 1927 requirements are specified, operations with all the large companies being still above 30 per cent.

In the early demonstrations, General Motors mounted to levels which surpassed the top price attained by the stock before the sold 50 per cent stock dividend deducted at the start of the week.

Steel Common reached new high ground on the current recovery and vigorous advances occurred in many sections of the list.

Nickel Plate was featured in the rail group, bettering any levels reached by the stock before the sold 50 per cent stock dividend deducted at the start of the week.

Prices dropped substantially from the day's highs, and stocks sold off sharply after displaying pronounced strength in the first three or four hours.

Car loadings in the week ended September 4 performed the noteworthy feature of establishing a record high for the second consecutive week, totalling 1,151,346, compared with 1,136,233 in the preceding week, and 1,102,785 in the corresponding period last year.

In 1925 a new high was reached in the week ended August 20, but that figure was not surpassed until the week ended August 23 this year, and the fact that the freight volume again reached an unprecedented aggregate in the following week of 1926 afforded considerable evidence of progress through the country.

United Fruit was a feature of the high-priced class, gaining 2 1/2 per cent. Lighter interests have been steadily acquiring the stock in anticipation of an increase in the 48 dividend to a $2 basis, and later on to $10. Drug doing an enormous business, and is gradually extending its scope. Earnings this year are expected to leave a balance of $17 million, a common share compared with $12.27 in 1925. An influential Boston bank's house has been putting its clients to work, and is a liberal policy of extra payments will be inaugurated after a regular $10 basis has been paid in full.

Independence followed the strength of Steel common, Bethlehem advancing to 49 1/2, up 2 1/2 from Tuesday's low.

WANTY CASE

by Carolyn Wells
© 1926 by G-P-PUTNAM SONS

"Explain," said Anderson, smiling at the dejected countenance that faced him.

"Well," Cunningham shot his bolt. "Perry Heath was here to-night."

"What?" Anderson's tone was as explosive as the other's, and he evinced unbounded incredulity.

"Yes, Perry, himself, in the flesh. I talked with him."

"Well, if you're going to talk with me make yourself explicit. I don't yet grasp your meaning, my boy."

So Cunningham told him, plainly, and truthfully, every word that had passed between himself and the fugitive Heath.

He spoke slowly and straightforwardly, but he kept a wary eye out for any expression on Anderson's face that might warn him how his tale was to be taken.

Sam Anderson said no word until the whole story was told. He watched Cunningham carefully, looking up alertly if the narrative halted, and when the climax was reached he remarked, briefly:

"You were quite right, Al, about your middle names."

That was all, but Cunningham grew hot all over at the scathing tone of reproach.

"Now, look here, Sam," he began, but Anderson interrupted.

"There's nothing to 'look here' about. You were a double-barrelled idiot to let Heath get away, if you had him here. One yell from you would have brought at least three men servants from the house, and more from the garage and garden. You muffed it, Cun, and that's all there is about that. You're a whine, and don't apologize. Your stupidity is beyond all apology and whining won't do a bit of good. How did he look?"

"Fit and all that," said Cunningham, "but he was dark, and, too, I was so flabbergasted."

"You would be!" and Anderson still used that tone of utter exasperation at his friend's stupidity. "Well, all we can do now is to try our best to get the little girl free and run Inman in."

Anderson spoke with brisk energy, as one who sees his plan of action made clear.

"Easier said than done," Cunningham growled.

"No, not if you tell your story to the authorities as convincingly as you have told it to me. I deplore your inactivity, but I am glad to have your evidence. The testimony of an eye witness, repeated at first hand, must have weight, and even that dunderhead Mott can't fail to recognize it."

"You know," Cunningham said, musingly, "that your character next door to the Heath's, he believed all along that Inman was the murderer. But he said that Inman killed Heath, too, and his body in the cellar or pitched it into the sea."

"How clever!" Anderson said, sarcastically. "But now, we know—or at least, you know—that Heath is alive—I say, Al, it was dark, are you sure that was Heath?"

"Oh, yes. I know Perry as well as you do, and I could see him clearly enough to recognize him. And you know that little trick he has of tossing back that lock of hair that falls over his forehead in the artist fashion. Oh, yes, it was Perry all right."

"Well, then Inman didn't kill him, in spite of the young man's astute deductions."

"No, of course not. Buck doesn't know anything of sleuthing any more than I do. Cunningham winked with a wry smile.

"Don't blame yourself too much. I daresay I lie into you too roughly, old chap. If so, forget it. But I confess, I should have liked to come home and find you here with Perry Heath, bound and gagged in a big chair!"

"But I had no reason to bind and gag him. He came to give helpful information."

"Which you swallowed, half hook and snook. Oh, I don't say it may not all be true, but on the other hand, it may not. Why, just suppose Perry Heath was the murderer, wouldn't he be wanted to free the little girl from suspicion, wouldn't he lay the blame on Larry Inman, the only possible suspect except himself? It's a moot, any way you look at it, but I wish I could have talked to Heath, even if he got away afterward."

"I wish you could have, Sam. I'm darned sorry I let him go, but he just vanished, you see."

"Like the Boobum. Well, what say, Al, shall we go over to head quarters and acquaint the powers that be with this tale, or shall we sleep over it and give it to them in the morning?"

"Oh, let's leave it till morning. Nobody of importance will be there this time of night, and I don't want to go clear out to Mott's house. I should think morning would be time enough."

"And let Heath put a few hundred more miles between himself and us. Though I don't suppose any search party could pick him up now, the trail is too cold. Well, so be it then. Come on out to the porch and have a nightcap and a smoke and tomorrow we'll electrify the police to no good whatever!"

"You scoff at everything, Sam. But what have you to offer as a better plan of pursuit? If you'd been here, what would you have said to Heath?"

"First of all, if you want the truth, Cun, I'd have marched him straight to headquarters. If Mott wasn't there I'd have sent for him. If he was there I'd have made Heath tell his story under oath. Then we'd have had something to go on, some sworn evidence. I say, suppose we go over to Heath's house and confront Inman with this tale?"

"You may go, if you like, but I shan't. I like Inman, and—oh, hang it all, I don't think I believe Heath's story at all. The more I think of it, the more fishy it seems."

"You mean you suspect—"

"Bunny Moore. I can't see any way out for her. To begin with, Inman doesn't act like a guilty man. And Bunny does."

"How does she?"

"Well, she bursts into tears whenever she's questioned."

"What girl wouldn't, especially an innocent one?"

"Well, then there's a lot of 'evicouldn't wear hard cheese!" answered the piggy boy. "It is hard shoes mother told us to get. Come on, Floppy," he grunted to his brother. "We must hurry along and get the hard shoes for Squinky. Good-by, Uncle Wiggily!"

And, as the piggy boys hurried along the woodland path, Mr. Longears shook his head in a puzzled way and said to himself:

"Hard shoes! Hard shoes! I'm sure there must be some mistake. I feel quite certain Mrs. Twistytail sent her little boys to the store for hard cheese, and they think she said hard shoes. They'll bring back shoes for their little sister, when it is really cheese to make a

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Hard Shoes

Copyright, 1926, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

When Curly and Floppy Twisty-tail, the little pig boys, were on their way through the woods one morning, going to do an errand for their mother, they met Uncle Wiggily, blowing out a merry whistle beneath his pink, twinkling nose.

"Hello, piggy boys!" called the rabbit gentleman. "Where are you going?"

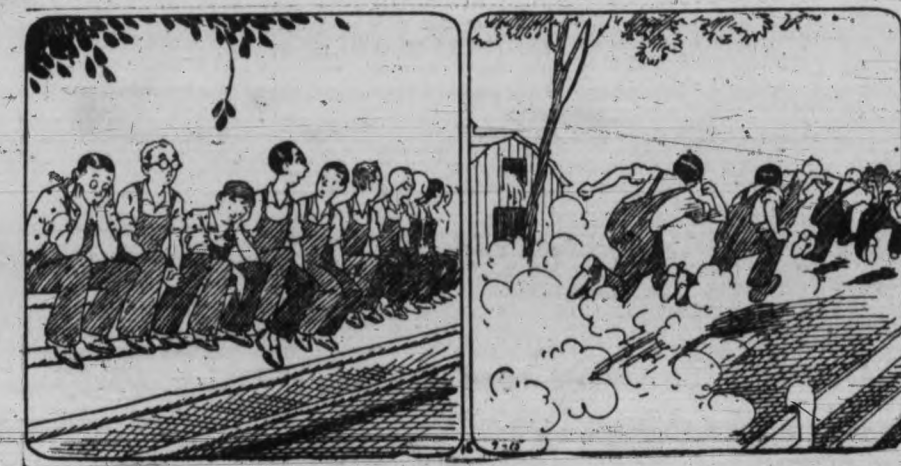

"We are going to the store to get some hard shoes," answered Floppy.

"Hard shoes! Hard shoes!" exclaimed the bunny in surprise. "I guess you mean hard cheese, don't you?"

"Ha! Ha!" Curly chuckled. "What are you laughing at," asked Uncle Wiggily.

VETERAN RADIOS CRICKET SECRETS

(Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times)

London, Sept. 14. — England's cricket veteran, Wilfred Rhodes, let thousands of listeners-in into two secrets when broadcasting from 2L0 in a reference to the last Test at the Oval he remarked:

"I can honestly say that I was more anxious during this match than in my first Test game at Trent Bridge twenty-seven years ago. When the game was over I was as happy and pleased as any schoolboy for I felt that I had not let my friends down. It was a great day for England."

"We read that some of those who are called 'veterans' are not likely to be playing in a test game again," he continued. "I am not so sure. I am even prepared to say that if Jack Hobbs keeps his normal health he will be in our next Test, eleven. His cricket this year has been wonderful, and I see him still as a great player as ever he was. What has been possible to me is at least equally possible to Jack."

A BOWLING CONFESSION

"Every time I bowl a ball," said Rhodes, "I do my best to impart spin. But I do not always know what the ball is going to do. Usually, of course, I pitch the ball on to the leg stump and it goes away to the off. But sometimes the ball will do something I don't expect, and it is when this happens I very often get a wicket. What is the cause of this? It is simply that the ball is spinning in its flight. When it touches the ground it might strike a tuft of grass that is slightly moist or greasy. Should this be the case the ball will do all manner of queer tricks. Good-length, plain, straight bowling, while having its virtue, would not get a good-class batsman out once in a month of Sundays. The batsman must always be expecting the ball to do some work. The more spin, the more erratic will the ball leave the turf. All the Test bowlers who have lasted any period of time at all have had this in mind."

NEW AIR MAIL SERVICE STARTS

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—Regular air mail service is to be inaugurated to-day between Seattle and Los Angeles by way of San Francisco and a number of other intermediate points. One of a fleet of five machines to be used in the service will hop off here at noon and will head for Fresno, Bakersfield and Los Angeles. It expects to reach its destination by 5 p.m.

The first machine from the north is expected to reach here at 11 a.m. It left Sand Point field at Seattle at 2:45 a.m., carrying a large shipment of mail. At midnight to-night another aeroplane will leave Los Angeles and should arrive here at 5:30 a.m. tomorrow.

A speedy test flight was completed on Monday with A. E. Peterson of Washington, assistant superintendent of the air mail service, as chief inspector.

The postage from San Francisco to any point on the route will be 10 cents an ounce. From Seattle to Los Angeles it will be 15 cents because the distance is greater than 1,000 miles.

The Pacific Air Transport Company holds the contract for the route.

VERDICT OF DROWNING

Vancouver, Sept. 15.—Death from drowning through accidentally falling out of a boat in English Bay August 28, was the verdict of a coroner's jury at an inquest on the death of Captain the Rev. Charles Wellesley Whitaker of Nakusp, B.C., whose body was found Sunday floating off Jericho Beach. He is believed to have stood up in the boat to remove his coat and stumbled into the water as a result of a lame leg.

SIX OF MINISTERS DEFEATED AT POLLS

Meighen and Patenaude Among Conservative Heads Who Fell Yesterday

Mackenzie King Re-elected; Robb, Lapointe, Cardin and Others Won

Ottawa, Sept. 15 (Canadian Press).—The Conservative Government of Right Hon. Arthur Meighen met with defeat at the polls yesterday. The Prime Minister himself failed to secure election in Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, and five of his ministers, three of them from the Province of Quebec, were defeated. On the other hand, the Liberal Party headed by Right Hon. Mackenzie King, constituted the largest group in the new Parliament. Mr. King and all the members of his former Government who contested ridings were returned by the electorate yesterday. Mr. King was elected in the constituency of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

MINISTERS DEFEATED

The members of the Conservative Government, in addition to Premier Meighen, who were defeated yesterday are: Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Minister of Justice; Hon. Andre Fauteux, Solicitor-General; Hon. Eugene Paquet, Minister of Health and Soldiers' Re-establishment; and two ministers without portfolio, Hon. Donald Sutherland and Hon. Raymond Morand.

LIBERALS ELECTED

The former ministers in the King Government, in addition to Right Hon. Mackenzie King, who were re-elected yesterday are: Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former Minister of Justice; Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, former Minister of Marine; Hon. Lucien Cannon, former Solicitor-General; Hon. J. A. Robb, former Minister of Finance; Hon. J. C. Elliott, former Minister of Labor, Health and Soldiers' Re-establishment; Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former Minister of Agriculture; Hon. C. A. Dunning, former Minister of Railways; Hon. J. H. King, former Minister of Public Works, and Hon. Charles Stewart, former Minister of the Interior.

LEMIEUX RE-ELECTED

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Speaker of the House of Commons in the last two Parliaments, was re-elected in Gaspe, Quebec.

In Quebec, P. E. L. Hon. J. E. Sinclair, former Minister without portfolio in the King Government, who was defeated in the general election last year, was successful yesterday.

Hon. James Murdock, formerly Minister of Labor under Premier King, met with defeat in High Park, Toronto.

The returns from the Maritime Provinces which came in first recorded the defeat of William Duff in Queens-Lunenburg, N.S. Mr. Duff, who was elected in that riding in 1925, was defeated by W. G. Ernst. Mr. Duff was Deputy Speaker of the House during last session.

Another candidate who had been much in the public eye and who went down to defeat yesterday was A. J. Doucet, Conservative, who was defeated by Alfred Bourgeois, in Kent, N.B.

BOURASSA RE-ELECTED

The election of Henri Bourassa, Independent, in the constituency of La-Belle, Quebec, was conceded early last evening. Mr. Bourassa was one of the foremost debaters in the last Parliament.

Paul Mercier, who was chairman of the Commons customs inquiry committee, was returned in St. Henri.

One of the prominent members of the Conservative Party who went down to defeat in Manitoba was Hon. Robert Rogers. That province returned no Conservatives to the new Parliament. In the last House, the Conservatives had six seats from Manitoba.

In British Columbia, Hon. H. H. Stevens, who made the charges on the floor of the House of maladministration in the Customs Department and precipitated one of the most bitter debates on record in the annals of the Canadian Parliament, was returned.

MISS MacPHAIL ELECTED

Of the two women who contested ridings, one was elected and the other with defeat. Miss Agnes Macphail, Progressive, who had represented Southeast Grey, Ontario, for years in the House, was returned once more by the electors of that riding.

In East Toronto, Miss Kathleen Bennett, Liberal, was defeated by Hon. E. R. Ryckman, Minister of Public Works.

In Algoma East, G. B. Nicholson, a prominent member of the Conservative Party and one of its most active parliamentary debaters during the last session, met with defeat at the hands of Benish Bowman, Liberal, formerly an Ontario minister.

Sidney

Sidney, Sept. 15.—The Ladies' Aid of the United Church held a most enjoyable picnic at the beautiful grounds of Mr. MacDonald's house at Swartz Bay. The afternoon was spent in games and bathing. A most delicious supper was served on the lawn under the trees, after which races were held. The winners of the first prizes were: Mrs. Draper, Mrs. J. T. Taylor, Mrs. Jackson, Miss May and Miss Hocking. The president, Mrs. Ellis, acted as judge, and afterwards presented the prizes, which were all amusing ones.

The Brownies held their first meeting after the Summer holidays on Tuesday afternoon at the Scout Hall, when a very pleasing ceremony took place. The district commissioner, Mrs. Gale of Mount Newton, Miss Gale and Miss Parr were present. The Brown Owl, Mrs.

Ramsay, who has been indefatigable in her work, and it is entirely owing to her that the Brownies are the success they are to-day. BUFFALOES PROPOSE GRAND LODGE FOR WESTERN CANADA

Although granted considerable discretionary powers in administering the affairs of a great province as British Columbia, the rate of progress is so great that it is thought by the Provincial Grand Lodge of the Royal Antiquarian Order of Buffaloes that the time is ripe for application to be made to the Grand Lodge of Western Canada.

For two years the matter has been discussed but at the Provincial Grand Lodge meeting on Sunday at the Pride of Victoria Hall, letters were read from the Provincial Grand Lodges of Alberta and Saskatchewan, suggesting that delegates be appointed from each province to convene in as central a place as possible probably Calgary, to arrange details.

The territory proposed to be covered by the Grand Lodge will extend from the Coast to Winnipeg; and the Grand Primo will rule over twenty-two lodges, five in British Columbia, twelve in Alberta, five in Saskatchewan, each with its own Provincial Grand Lodge.

SPANISH PLEBISCITE

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Sept. 15.—The final estimate of the number of signers of the plebiscite in behalf of the Primo de Rivera Government in the Spanish frontier towns was that about thirty per cent. of the total eligible electors affixed their signatures as favorable to the present administration. No opposition signatures were accepted.

Quality That Endures

THE fruits of twenty-one years of experience in building motor cars are evident in the world-wide public acceptance of Ford quality as an enduring characteristic.

Enduring quality has enabled the public to buy these products just as it buys other products of established reputation—with the assurance of receiving good value and lasting satisfaction.

Only enduring quality could instill such confidence in the public mind. More than twelve million owners testify that this confidence is well founded.
